NEW-YORK, July 8.

From Colombia.—The packet brig Athenian, capt. Sullivan, arrived yesterday from Carthagena, having left that port on the 14th ult. It was supposed the Convention at Ocana, had nearly finished its labours, and would dissolve in a short time, but nothing was distinctly known of its proceedings, though it was believed that the Executive was to be invested with greater power than it had hitherto possessed Bolivar was at at village in the neighborhood of Ocana, waiting the result of the proceedings of the Convention. Padilla, who was implicated in the late conspiracy at Carthagena, had not yet been brought to trial, but remained in prison. The last intelligence from Bogota, stated that Santandar had been impeached and charged with having instigated that transaction.

The old Spanish tariff, with some modifications had been revived, and went into operation on the 1st of May An export duty of three per cent. on specie had been recently ordered, and was in force when the Athenian sailed.

NEW-YORK, July 8.

We have been favored by a commercial friend with the Feuille du Commerce of Port-au-Prince, dated the 15th of June. The Chamber of Commerce was opened on the 10th, by General Boyer in person, on which occasion he delivered an address, from which we learn the interesting fact that after the year 1830, the commerce of all nations shall be placed on a footing of perfect equality.—Gazette.

We have received files of Mexican papers of a late date. No events of importance are mentioned in them. The writers of the two great parties, the Yorkists and the Scotch masons, rail at each other in violent terms. The latter are accused of meditating a new revolution, and the former proclaim that if the effusion of blood be desired, there shall be enough to satisfy the most sanguinary. Some individuals had been imprisoned for entering into a conspiracy to drive at once all the Spaniards out of the Republic. The friends of Gen. Bravo were not silent; but continued to assert his innocence of treason. Sr. Dominguez has been appointed envoy to Great Britain, and Sr Camacho succeeds him in the Congress of Tacubaya! Canedo is the new Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Our Correspondent at Liverpool, writes under date of 24th—"The late extensive operations in the Cotton market are predicated upon the falling off in the importation, contrasted with the first five months of the last year, and a much greater advance might have been expected but for the dull state of the Manchester market for yarns and goods, and especially the latter, which have been on the decline for some weeks past, which, with the late advance, tend almost daily to induce some speculative holders to realize, and the advance in American Cotton is barely at 1–8 per lb. on the lower qualities, but Brazils, having been previously neglected, have advanced an ⅛ a ¼ per lb."

[illegible] that the [illegible]ed without [illegible] to pay the dividends on Me[illegible] Stock. What was worse, this vessel has brought no confirmation to the statement put forth a few days since, that the Mexican Government had at its command $500,000, which was intended to be sent to this country to meet the demand of the bond holders. On the contrary, it appeared, that all the money raised by anticipating the regular payment of duties, had been used by the Government to satisfy pressing demands at home. In fact, the private letters hold out no expectation that the Republic will for a long time be enabled to remit to this country any dollars.

Mexican Bonds opened at 44¼ to [illegible] but dropped to 38¼; and finally closing at 38¼. Peruvian Bonds opened at 28, and fell to 26.

Frankfort, May 14.

We learn from Munich that the Bavarian Cabinet has received from Vienna an important communication relative to the affairs of the East.

A report is circulated here, that a Declaration of the Court of Vienna, respecting the Russian Declaration of War, will be very shortly published.

According to letters from Berlin, it is affirmed that the third corps of the Prussian army, stationed at Frankfort on the Oder, and in the other fortresses of the March of Brandenburg, was going to be sent into the Grand Duchy of Posen, for the purpose of forming a Corps of Observation.

The squadron which left Cadiz on the 28th May, for Havana, had on board about 1500 troops. These were to be joined by the same number from Teneriffe making a body of 3000. It is supposed they are merely a reinforcement for the garrisons of Cuba, where a regular force of 11,000 or 12,000 troops is constantly maintained.

Portugal.—The London Courier of the 20th of May says—"No news, either official or otherwise, has been received to day from Lisbon, when our paper went to press. But the intelligence we communicated some days ago, of the determination of the powers of Europe to act in concert, in opposition to the claims of Don Miguel, are implicitly relied on. The Russian and the French Ambassadors will quit Lisbon at the same time with Sir Frederick Lamb, if Sir Frederick Lamb shall determine upon such a measure.

A fortnight before the publication of the Russian Manifesto and Declaration, an order had been sent to the fleet at Sebastopol to take on board 30,000 men, and land them below the mouth of the Danube.

PARIS, May 20.

General Bertrand, last Grand Marshal at the Court of Napoleon, has married his daughter to the son of a rich American, proprietor of the Passage des Panoramas. [Mr. Amedee Thayer, son of James Thayer, formerly of Rhode Island.] The marriage festival was brilliant and full of interest. The young bride is one of the most beautiful women that can be seen, and the recollections of St. Helena, give additional interest to her charms.

Extract of a letter from Havana, to a respectable citizen of Pensacola, dated the 28th June, received per the Grampus.
