First Legislature—First Session.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

FRIDAY, 6th March, 1846.

The Senate met agreeably to adjournment.
Hon Trasimond Landry, Lieutenant Governor, and President of the Senate in the chair.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE DAY.

Second Reading.

"An act for the removal of the Seat of Government," was taken up at its second reading.

The first section of said bill which was as follows, was read:

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened, That in pursuance of the one hundred and twelfth article of the Constitution, the town of Baton Rouge in the Parish of East Baton Rouge be, and the same is hereby designated and fixed as the Seat of Government."

Mr Kenner moved to amend said first section, by striking out therefrom the words: "the town of Baton Rouge in the Parish of East Baton Rouge."

Said amendment was lost.

On motion of Mr Marks, the said first section was adopted.

The second section, which was as follows, was read and adopted:

"Section 2. Be it further enacted, &c. That from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, the Legislature shall assemble and the several officers shall keep their offices in the said town of Baton Rouge."

The following, the third section of the bill, was read:

"Section 3. Be it further enacted, &c. That three Commissioners be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to accept the most suitable site from among those offered by the town of Baton Rouge, and to superintend the erection and furnishing of convenient buildings for the use of the Legislature and State Officers."

Mr Taylor moved to amend said third section, by striking out, after the words: "to superintend the," the word "erection," and inserting in its stead the word "renting."

Mr Brashear moved to lay said amendment on the table—said motion was adopted.

On motion, the third section was also adopted.

The fourth and last section of said bill, which is as follows, was also read and adopted:

"Section 4. Be it further enacted, &c. That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized to fill any vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Legislature, by the death, resignation or refusal to act, of the commissioners appointed."

On motion, the rules were suspended, said bill underwent its third reading and passed.

On motion of Mr Marks, the rules were again suspended, and the Secretary informed the House of the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

Mr Taylor presented a memorial from Baptiste Adlé, of the Parish of Natchitoches, praying for the emancipation of the slave Artémise and her children.

On motion, said memorial was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr Soulé, of the Committee on the Judiciary, made the following report, which was read:

"The Committee on the Judiciary beg leave to report as follows, on the several bills hereinafter mentioned, which, by resolution of the Senate, were submitted to their consideration:

1st. Your committee could not give their assent to the mode suggested in bill No. 21, for electing the Judges who are to preside over Municipal Elections.

In a city like New Orleans, and under the influences of high party excitement, such preliminary elections would sometimes prove abortive and might in many instances endanger the public tranquility.

The bill ought to be laid on the table.

2d. Bill No. 22, is "An act prescribing the mode of conducting elections for officers elective by the people under the charter of the city of New Orleans."

The committee have incorporated in it a provision embracing the object which the preceding bill was intended to promote.

The act as amended, leaves with the Sheriff the power of appointing the Judges of Election; and the unanimous wish of the committee is that it may meet with immediate action on the part of the Senate.

3d. The committee recommend the passage of the bill No. 23, being "An act to prescribe the time during which the Polls shall be held open at elections by the People, of officers under the charter of the city of New Orleans."

4th. The bill No. 49, being "An act to organize the several District Courts to be held in the city of New Orleans," is reported with slight alterations, and in the opinion of your committee demands immediate consideration.

5th. The bill No. 62, being "An act to define the Jurisdiction and determine the number of Justices of the Peace in and for the City and Parish of New Orleans," has also been slightly amended, and like the preceding one is unanimously recommended to the prompt action of the Senate.

New Orleans, March 5th, 1846.

P. SOULE, Chairman.

On motion of Mr Soule, the rules were suspended, and said report was taken up, and it was adopted.

On motion, the bills therein mentioned were made the special order of the day, for Monday next, at 12 o'clock, M.

Mr Adams presented a memorial from Josephine Bauguon and René Jacques Bougere, her husband, of the Parish of Rapides, praying that she be allowed to sell her dotal property.

On motion of Mr Adams, said memorial was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr Stille, messenger from the House, requested the concurrence of the Senate in a

"Resolution for discharging Augustin Duplantier and his securities from all further liability on account of State Taxes for the years 1838 and 1839, annulling the bonds furnished on that account, and authorizing the State Treasurer to grant a full discharge to said Duplantier for said Taxes."

By another message, Mr Stille informed the Senate of the concurrence of the House in

"An act to emancipate Joseph Elois De Blanc."

He further requested the concurrence of the Senate in

"An act to provide for the assessment and collection of the State and Parish Taxes of the Parish of Jackson for the year 1845."

Mr Adams, of the Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the accounts rendered for expenses incurred for the Inauguration of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, reported

"An act to defray the expenses of the Inauguration of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor," which was read for the first time.

Mr Soule, of the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the Resolution in relation to the election of the State Treasurer, made the following report which was read and adopted:

"The Committee have taken into consideration the resolution presented by the honorable member from St. James, in relation to the mode which ought to prevail in the election of the State Treasurer under the new Constitution.

If the English text of that instrument was only to be consulted, it would certainly present a contradiction which your committee could not easily reconcile. Indeed, while the 36th article provides that the election of the State Treasurer shall be effected by the joint ballot of the two Houses of the General Assembly. The article 101 provides that in all elections by the Senate and House of Representatives jointly or separately the vote shall be given viva voce.

But if reference be had to the French text of the Constitution, then the difficulty is at once removed. It reads as follows in article 36: "Un Trésorier de l'Etat sera élu tous les deux ans, par le vote reuni des deux Chambres de l'Assemblée Générale," and in no manner conflicts with the provisions of article 101, which direct that the vote shall be given viva voce.

Your Committee would here remark, that the new Constitution having been adopted in the French as well as in the English language, in this respect, unlike the Constitution of 1812, which had only been translated into French, both texts are entitled to the same respect and must have equal force.

Now the article as in the French text not only removes the difficulties and doubts which the English would create, but makes the two articles at war perfectly consistent.

Therefore a majority of your committee are of opinion that the State Treasurer ought to be elected viva voce, and that General J. Walker has been constitutionally elected as such.

On behalf of the same Committee, to whom was referred "An act to provide for the removal of all cases now pending in the Supreme Court of the State under the Constitution of 1812, to the Supreme Court to be established under the new Constitution," Mr Soulé reported favorably to said bill.

Mr Durant, of the Committee of Enrolment, reported the following bills as correctly enrolled.

"An act to define the qualifications of voters under all the acts of the General Assembly of Louisiana, chartering political corporations;" and,

"An act to define the qualifications of persons elected to office, by the people, under all the acts of the General Assembly of Louisiana, chartering political corporations."

On motion of Mr Durant, the "Resolutions in regard to the right of the United States to the Oregon Territory," was made the special order of the day for Thursday next, 12th instant, at 12 o'clock, M.

On motion of Mr Scott, the rules were suspended, and the Senate took up the Resolution discharging Augustin Duplantier and his securities from all further liability on account of the State Taxes, for the years 1838 and 1839, annulling the bonds furnished on that account, and authorizing the State Treasurer to grant a full discharge to said Duplantier for said Taxes;

Said resolution was read for the first time:

On motion, the rules were again suspended, said resolution underwent its second and third readings, and was adopted.

On motion the rules were again suspended, and the assistant Secretary informed the House of the concurrence of the Senate therein.

He further requested the signature of the Speaker of the House to the enrolled bills entitled:

NEW AND WONDERFUL DISCOVERY. Water of Dr. Brocchieri, a Neapolitan Chemist.

THIS Water is one of the most precious modern discoveries. From the testimony of the most distinguished physicians in Paris, and from that rendered by a commission appointed by the Royal Society of Medecine, it is proved that any hemorrhage caused by a wound, however serious it may be, is instantaneously and effectually arrested by the use of the Brocchieri Waters. Experiments made in various cities of the United States, and particularly in New York, have rendered still more evident the hemostatic virtues of this water.

It is likewise ascertained to be a sovereign remedy externally applied for cuts, ulcers of every kind, varicose veins and for all cutaneous diseases generally, and in the veterinary art, for the diseases of horses. Internally, for bleeding at the nose, cancer of the womb, scorbutic and venereal affections, burns, &c.

Every phial containing Brochieri Water, has incrusted in the glass the name and address of this Chemist, and is accompanied with printed directions in English and French.

General depot for the Brocchieri Water at E. LA VENERE, Druggist, corner of Casacalvo and Frenchmen streets, Third Municipality. Another is established at ANDREAUX, Druggist, corner of Royal and St Louis streets, successor to Delpeche. m13—m

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the face, Blotches, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement of and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Sciatica, or Lumbago, and Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Ascites or Dropsy, Exposure or Imprudence in Life. Also, Chronic Constitutional Disorders, &c.

The searching influence of this preparation reaches the blood, and incorporates with the other discharges of its deep harmless the virus of disease in that fluid, while its tonic qualities strengthen the stomach, and the digestive power with which, however strange the combination may appear, it is endowed, acts gently upon the excretory organs. [illegible] afflicted with pustulous or other eruptions, scrofulous ulcers, superficial or deep-seated sores, inflammatory or chronic rheumatism, general prostration hepatic diseases, &c. &c. it will be found to produce almost beneficial, and in some cases, revitalizing effect.

Still farther proof of the value and efficacy of this medicine. Another link added to the chain of its testimony.

WEST POULTNEY, Vt. Dec. 4th, 1845.

Messrs A. B. & D. Sands—Gent. Sirs—About the middle of January, 1832, I was attacked with a disease which my Physician called Rheumatism, and I used such remedies as were prescribed, and in about three weeks it left; but nearly the same time the next year it appeared again in the same place, the right hip joint, from which it increased, moving from limb to limb and joint to joint until it had emphatically taken possession of my whole system. I tried every remedy prescribed by the various Physicians, but was unable to obtain relief, even after they had completely baffled the combined skill of the Medical Profession. I continued thus until September 1836, when I took a sudden and severe cold, and immediately my disease raged with increased fury throughout my whole system. My body was racked with convulsions and twisted with cramp until every joint was distorted, and every limb painfully distorted. My limbs and body were drawn together, nearly into a sitting posture, in which every joint became so perfectly set that it was impossible to move hand or foot or any part of my limbs.

I was confined in this condition about one year from the above date to a common bed set on a hydrostatic bed for one year, from which I was taken in February 1841, and placed in a large easy chair, which I was obliged to conform to the angle of my stiff limbs and joints. I had not been long in the chair before a small ulcer made its appearance on my limbs, [illegible] discharging a quantity of fluid that large folds of cloth placed under and around them would be completely drenched in a few hours. Although my feet were poulticed, ulcers tender that I could scarcely endure the weight of cloth upon them, yet at times they would burn and itch so intolerably that my nurse would be obliged to take a rough cloth and rub them until it was sometimes saturated with blood. All the nails on my fingers and toes died and came off. I had a distressing pain in my left side, a distressing headache almost continually, and besides, my bowels were so torpid that they did not move unless by the use of Pills, often more than once in several days. Thus, Sir, is but a faint description of my actual state when your Sarsaparilla, like an Angel of Mercy, found me and administered to my relief. While removing the wrapper from the first bottle, my wife said to her husband, you must not allow yourself even to hope for relief, for if you do, it will only add another to your already many grievous disappointments. I very sensibly felt the effects of the first dose, and when I had taken one half of the first bottle the discharge from my feet entirely stopped and the swelling began to abate, and before I had finished taking the second, the burning and itching was gone, the loathsome stench disappeared, the pain in my head side and back disappeared, while my bowels for the first time in four years moved naturally and have continued to do so since, and my health is rapidly improving.
