j 15 M. WALTON.

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.—MADAME GRANET, considers it incumbent upon her to give to the parents of her pupils, the following explanation, on account of some rumours that have been spread, and which have already but too materially injured the establishment which she has just opened.

Miss GRANET's recent marriage has led some persons to suppose that the School could no longer be maintained, and has prevented several from sending their children to it.—This fear, however, is so much the more groundless, as Miss Granet has never been entrusted but with the teaching of Piano, Singing and Drawing, which she has promised to continue to attend to, as before.

It is moreover generally said that Monsieur Granet is about to quit the town, and will soon cease to attend Made. Granet's establishment. It is very true that the Board of Directors of the Jefferson College have done Mr. Granet the honor of appointing him President of that College; but that appointment, dependent on particular circumstances, and consequently conditional, may not be realized. In the second place, admitting even that Mr. Granet's appointment should become permanent, the organization of the Jefferson College is not so forward as not to allow him to stay still several months more at New-Orleans before he repairs to his post: Lastly, when Mr. and Mrs. Granet opened their establishment, they had foreseen the event of Mr. Granet's obtaining the situation to which he has just been appointed, and for which he was then a candidate, and they had taken such measures as would prevent their school from being injured by Mr. Granet's retirement. Some persons, deserving in every respect, Made. Granet's confidence, and that of the parents of her pupils, have been written to and called over from Europe, so that if the establishment does not gain by the change, it will at least not lose by it.

Madame Granet again engages not to neglect the least thing to ensure to her establishment the confidence of the parents, and has every reason to believe that her pupils will continue to make the rapid progress which have already been observed, whether Mons. Granet leaves or not. [feb 7

WRITING.

MR. DOLBEAR, has the pleasure to inform the citizens of New Orleans, that his brother has just arrived from their northern writing establishment. They are, now, therefore, prepared to give lessons in the various practical and ornamental hands at their writing establishment No. 48 Canal street, over Miss Carroll's Book Store; where Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine numerous specimens of the rapid improvement of persons from eight to upwards of fifty years of age.

A separate apartment for Ladies. Private lessons given if desired. Diplomas, family registers, cards, titles, &c &c. executed with elegance. Rooms open from 8 A. M. to 10½ P. M.

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and neatness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvements of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 2d, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system, we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 5 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Menhaut; Rev. O. L. Nash, A. Grailhe, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Morphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General.

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs, and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His deportment, also, is that of a gentleman.

FRESH GARDEN SEEDS
NOW LANDING, AND FOR SALE AT
WM. SMITH'S
Garden Seed Store, No. 83 Custom-House street.

The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the packet ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh SPRING GARDEN SEEDS, received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality, with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies for retailing from the establishment than from other in the city, as from the subscriber's long residence and practical knowledge of the Seed business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive order, (whether wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kinds of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Atlantic cities, not even excepting any of the Shaker's societies. Dealers can always, during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or gross, neatly and uniformly put up with printed labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1822, and hopes by personal assiduity, to merit a continuance thereof, in his new store, No. 83, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located.
