SOLD ON ACCOUNT OF DEPARTURE.
THE handsome plantation of Mr. P. Blanchard, situated on the bank of the river Mississippi, two miles below the city, and on the same side.

There is one arpent and eight toises on the river, upon eighty in depth, of which from about thirty to forty is enclosed.

Upon the property is established a brick yard, which is in full operation, and affords a great revenue, susceptible of being augmented still more.

The buildings are all new, and in a good state, and consists as follows—facing the river:

A house two stories high, containing on the second story four apartments, two large cabinets, a front and back gallery, the whole painted and papered anew, and on the first story, which is even with the ground, likewise four apartments, of which the first is used as a dining room, the second as a pautry, the third as a cellar, and the last as an ironing room.

Before the house is a handsome little parterre, embellished with beautiful shrubbery and flower trees, selected with great care and taste—the alleys are made of brick, and the whole is surrounded by a fine claire-voie (light-sowing.) In the yard back of the house there is a kitchen, servant rooms, built in brick, a well also built in brick, a hen house, a pigeon house, privies, &c. &c.

A fine orchard which produces well.

Further in arrear is an overseer's house, a hospital, a hen house, a pigeon house, a privy, negro cabins, blacksmith shop, stables for horses and for cows, &c. &c.

The brick yard which is very extensive consists of three large kneeders, three large furnaces to burn the bricks in, a shed, together with staging and planks to dry the bricks on.

The establishment by its distribution is so arranged that the process of making bricks need not be suspended during rainy weather.

The above establishment, with or without the negroes upon it, will be sold on reasonable conditions, and all the accretions will enter immediately into account.

Persons desiring the said property can come and visit it, and for the terms application can be made to Mr. P. Blanchard, on the place. 11 oct

A VENDRE POUR CAUSE DE DEPART.
La belle HABITATION de M. P. Blanchard, située sur les bords du fleuve à deux milles plus bas que la ville et du même côté.

Elle a un arpent et huit toises face au fleuve sur 40 de profondeur, dont 35 à 40 à-peu-près sont entourés de barrière.

Elle est établie en briqueterie et est en plein rapport; elle donne de grands revenus et est susceptible d'augmentation.

Les édifices sont tous neufs et en très bon état et se composent comme suit:

D'une maison de maître à deux étages, de quatre appartements, face au fleuve et deux grands cabinets, galerie devant et derrière, le tout peint et tapissé à neuf; le rez-de-chaussée est également composé de quatre appartements dont le premier sert de salle à manger, le second de dépense, le troisième de cave et le dernier de chambre à repasser. Devant la maison il y a un joli parterre garni de beaux arbres et arbustes rares, les allées sont bordées, et il est entouré d'une jolie claire-voie. Dans la cour, qui est derrière la maison, sont la cuisine, les chambres à domestiques bâties en briques, un puits également en briques, un poulailler, un pigeonnier, latrines pour maîtres et d'autres pour domestiques, une superbe plantation d'arbres qui sont tous bien venant.

Plus, en arrière, est la maison de l'économe, l'hôpital, la cuisine, poulailler, pigeonnier et latrines, le camp des nègres, le magasin, la forge, les écuries pour chevaux et pour vaches, &c.

La briqueterie qui est très vaste, se compose de trois grands petrins, trois grands fourneaux à cuire la brique et de sept grands hangards avec les étagères et planchettes pour faire sécher les briques.

Les établissements par leur distribution sont tels que les temps pluvieux ne retardent en rien les travaux.

On vendra le dit établissement à des conditions très avantageuses avec ou sans les nègres qui sont dessus, et tous les accessoires pour entrer immédiatement en rapport.

Les personnes qui désireraient acheter la dite propriété peuvent venir la visiter, et pour les conditions, s'adresser à M. P. BLANCHARD, sur les lieux. 11 oct—10

CHEMIN-A-COULISSES
DE PETERSBURG ET ROANOKE.
Avis aux Voyageurs et Négociants.

LE soussigné, au nom des président et directeurs de la compagnie du Chemin-à-Coulisses de Pétersburg, a l'avantage d'annoncer au public que le chemin-à-coulisses entre Pétersburg et Blakely, sur la rivière de Roanoke, est maintenant ouvert pour le transport des passagers et des marchandises. La construction de la machine à vapeur et des chars ne laisse rien à désirer pour le transport, dans le plus bref délai, de plus grand nombre des passagers sur lequel on puisse compter.

La grande malle du sud est transportée sur ce chemin, et la force de la machine-à-vapeur et leurs mouvements mettent le soussignés à même de promettre que le trajet (distance de soixante milles) pourra s'effectuer en quatre heures. Les voyageurs pourront se rendre immédiatement avec la malle à leur arrivée, de Pétersburg à Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c. Ils pourront également trouver des occasions régulières pour se rendre aux bateaux-à-vapeur naviguant sur la rivière de James, et par cette voie ils pourront aisément aller à Baltimore en 27 heures de Pétersburg.

PETERSBURG & ROANOKE RAIL-ROAD.
To Northern Travellers and Merchants.

THE undersigned in behalf of the President and Directors of the Petersburg Rail Road Co., has the pleasure of announcing to the public, that the Rail-Road between Petersburg and Blakely on the Roanoke River, is now open for the transportation of passengers and merchandize. The arrangements made in the way of locomotive engines and coaches are adequate to the transportation, without the least delay, the largest number of passengers which can offer. The great southern mail is carried on the railroad, and the power and speed of the company's engines, enable the subscriber to promise that the journey (a distance of sixty miles,) will be made in four hours.—Travellers will be enabled to proceed with the mail immediately on its arrival in Petersburg to Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c.:—travellers will also find in Petersburg, regular conveyances to the James River steamboats; and by these the journey to Baltimore is easily effected in 27 hours from Petersburg.
HENRY D. BIRD,
oct 2 Agent Transportation.

THE Bank of Louisiana [illegible] on Mobile, Tuskaloosa, and Decatur (Alabama), Natchez, Natchez, Nashville, Louisville, Lexington, Cincinnati and Pittsburg, also on the Atlantic cities.
