BAZAR OF PERFUMES.

Royal street, No. 239.

THIS being the proper season for the sale of some of the Cosmetics which are to be found at the above Bazar, the subscriber takes the liberty of making a few observations on the mode of using such articles.

When the warm season arrives the ladies hair are fatigued from the friction to which they have been subjected by the winter head dress, and they call for more than usual care.

The liquid soap, of which yolks of eggs form a compounding part, is an excellent cosmetic to cleanse the head and to dispose the hair to receive the oils or creams with which they are to be impregnated for the purpose of exciting their growth and preventing them from shedding.

He does recommend the floral oil of Sainy, that of Macassar; do. of bear clarified and perfumed, and several other kinds of oils or pomatums, of which he has a large and diversified assortment. Also, Phiotris of Guilland, &c.

FOR THE FACE—The subscriber recommends the use of the Persian cream, do. of Cucumbers, very fresh hair powder, potatoes fine powder, cream of rose, white of pearl, superfine Rouge, either in pots, leaves or with vinegar, rose milk, cold cream, &c.

Every kind of shaving and toilette soap, scented or without scent.

Almonds, pastes dry or liquid to whiten the skin, the celebrated cream of soap of Demarson, which preserves its freshness and qualities for a very long time.

FOR THE MOUTH.—Balsam water and Demarson's powder, coral powder and optat.

Superfine sachets, to sprinkle over a handkerchief, amongst which that very celebrated essence called the Cœur de Valerie; Lavender waters double distilled and simple, Alp water, Cologne water, from the lowest quality to the double refined of Demarson, and to No. 24 of Marie [illegible]; Orange flowers water, rose water, &c.

Every body knows how much cordials will improve by age; persons desirous of procuring very old Rossoratrix, do. of Ispahan, do. Dos Carmes, of the French mountains, &c. will find some high, warranted 15 years old, good Vanilla by the pound or the ounce, for ice [illegible]—good cassis mustard, &c. L. EVEN. a 29

FRESH GARDEN SEEDS.

WM. SMITH'S

Garden Seed Store, No. 83 Custom-House street.

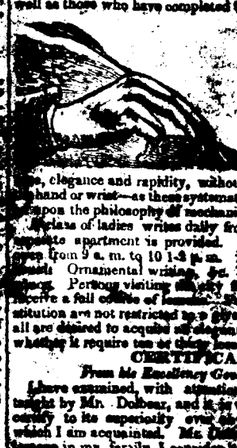
The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the packet ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh SPRING GARDEN SEEDS, received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies for retailing from the establishment than from other in the city, as from the subscriber's long residence and practical knowledge of the Seed business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive orders (whether wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kinds of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Atlantic cities; not even excepting any of the Shaker's societies. Dealers can always depend during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or gross, neatly and uniformly put up with printed labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1822, and hopes by personal assiduity, to merit a continuance thereof, in the new store, No. 83, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located

CARTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR, respectfully invites the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's book store) and examine numerous specimens, executed by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instruction, as well as those who have completed their lessons.



The movements of the wrist, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor, and if properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or pinning hand or wrist—as these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanism.

A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartment open from 9 a. m. to 10 1-2 p. m. Private lessons given as heretofore. Ornamental writing, &c. &c., executed with dispatch. Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but all are desired to acquire a elegant hand before they leave, whether it require ten or thirty lessons. m 7

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 24, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Cartairian system, we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 40 years, written through an entire course of instruction, and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to there rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimen seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is quickly superior to any hitherto taught. It is write legibly elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore unanimously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose talents promise to be so immediately useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maunhaut; Rev. O. L. Nash, A. Guillin, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm G. Pope, Esq; D. Morphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General. dec 29

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs, and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His deportment, also, is that of a gentleman. JOHN C. FORBES, jan 25 Post of Center Office, Ky.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Granet, in Mr. Landreaux's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $200, day scholars, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20, harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $8. Each quilt, 18 sheets, 2 street dresses, 3 woollen blankets, 1 white knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absences. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The incredible success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to add, more to further particulars.
