T. P. LASSERRE, manufacturer of chirurgical instruments and cutlery, makes knives with gold or silver blades, and others; repairs all articles relative to his line; and sharpens razors, lancets, and other edging instruments. He hopes, by his exertions, to obtain the same patronage that has been bestowed on him in Paris, where he obtained a silver medal from the Royal Society of the Academy of Sciences.
His store is in Royal street, No. 140, between Toulous and St. Louis sts. nov 20

LEGE'S ASSEMBLY ROOM,
Corner of Camp and Poydras streets, near the American Theatre.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has taken the upper story of that location, to which is annexed a spacious and splendid ball room, supper room, ladies and gentlemen's dressing rooms, a convenient place for the deposit of hats, cloaks, etc., and also a superb restaurant and bar room.

His purpose in mentioning this, is, that it may be known to the public, that he is about to engage a select orchestra and devote at least one night in the week to public balls.

Gentlemen desirous of forming private dancing societies, are requested to call upon the subscriber at the above ball room, where all necessary arrangements can be made.

His prices will be as moderate as in any other similar institution in the city, and he hopes by his indefatigable exertions to please, that he will merit and receive a share of public patronage.

His school for the instruction of young ladies and gentlemen, in this graceful and elegant accomplishment, will be held at the same place. In addition to the dances of this city, will be taught the Galopades, Mazouka, and all the latest fashionable Parisian and Italian figures.

It would be needless for the subscriber to expatiate on the immense advantage to be derived by youth, from this charming and beautiful acquirement, to those who entertain a knowledge of the Terpsicorian art, it imparts at once, freedom, health, agility, and grace to the humane frame, and is capable of reclaiming the most awkward and graceless action, to the refined and polished air of bon ton.

Notice will be given of the first public assembly.

Letters of invitation to ladies will be sent in due time, and no others but those invited by the subscriber will be admitted.

Gentlemen desirous of procuring letters of invitation for ladies, will please call on the subscriber.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.—Parish Court for the Parish & City of New-Orleans.—The State of Louisiana, to whom these presents shall come, greeting: Whereas, Jean Labadie, having purchased at a sale made by J. B. Blache, auctioneer, the property hereinafter described, has applied to the clerk of this court for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to an act of the legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales;" approved the 10th day of March, 1834.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the Parish Court, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any formality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever, to show cause, within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by J. B. Blache, auctioneer, on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1834, by virtue of a decree of this Court, rendered on the 28th day of July, A. D. 1834, on the petition of Peter Caurey, syndic of the creditors of Samuel Jacobs, praying for the sale of the property surrendered by said insolvent to his creditors, in a case entitled, "Samuel Jacobs vs. his creditors," No. 7622 of the docket of this court, at which sale said Jean Labadie became the purchaser for the sum of sixteen thousand two hundred dollars.

Description of property as given in the conveyance, viz. A certain lot of ground situate in this city, being American measure, seventeen feet one inch and one half of an inch in front on Levee street, eighty feet deep, and seventeen feet two inches and three-eights of an inch in the rear, bounded on the right hand side by the property of Philip Areguo, on the left hand side by the property of James Colles, and on the rear by the property of Daniel Warburg; together with the four story brick house erected thereon, and two story brick kitchen, and all rights of passage, entries and other appurtenances and commodities of whatever kind and nature the same be; which said lot marked number one, is fully described on a plan drawn on the 8th day of December, 1830, by Joseph Pilié, city surveyor, which plan is attached to an act executed before Felix de Armas, notary public, on the 19th day of December, 1830.
