THE WHIG CONVENTION.

We point to [illegible] report of the proceedings of the [illegible] Convention [illegible] on Saturday [illegible] [illegible] the highest [illegible] of the [illegible] party, which they represented, and to ensure the success of those great [illegible] Republican party, of which the [illegible] have ever been the steadfast [illegible] supporters. From gentlemen [illegible] by such sentiments, what [illegible] expected but zeal, unanimity [illegible] good feeling, and complete [illegible] concurrence in the proceedings. [illegible] were the gratifying results of the [illegible] and they demonstrate [illegible] mere words and phrases [illegible] in this city is resolved [illegible] with so many a [illegible] a band of brothers, to sustain the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket.

It is remarkable as an evidence of the admirable [illegible] that prevailed, that though there were two hundred delegates present, representing [illegible] of the [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] in any Convention.

The candidates are now before the people, [illegible] the extreme difficulty of finding persons willing to accept the offices of Senators and Representatives, during a season when every mercantile and professional man reaps the harvest of his toil in New Orleans, the ticket is as strong a one as was ever presented to the citizens. It comprises gentlemen of almost every [illegible] the merchant, the mechanic, the lawyer, are all represented upon it. Individually the candidates are entitled to the warm [illegible] of the party. They are all men of [illegible] intelligent and devoted to the [illegible] and welfare of the city. The Senatorial [illegible] is the best we have framed [illegible] T. G. HUNT, a sound, shrewd [illegible] gentleman, an ardent Whig, [illegible] FELIX LABATUT, one of [illegible] Creoles, with [illegible] State and city, and an [illegible] CYPRIEN DUFOUR, [illegible] His well earned [illegible] tact, acuteness, [illegible] are familiar to the [illegible] With such a ticket, we [illegible] adversary may oppose to us.

The nomination for Sheriff was made by acclamation. Not a dissenting voice was raised [illegible] We [illegible] JAMES P. FRERET [illegible] He requires [illegible] They know and love him. He is [illegible] an honest man, with [illegible] heart, and as open a hand as ever [illegible] one of God's creation. He is the friend of the poor man, the encourager of industry, always ready to do good; always prepared to cooperate in benevolent and philanthropic enterprises. His soul is mirrored in his face, and frankness, good humor and kindheartedness, bask in his smiles and beam from his eyes. To doubt his success, would be treason to the generous and discerning constituency whose suffrages he claims.

With such a ticket then, do the Whigs of Orleans begin the campaign. They are united, they are zealous, they are enthusiastic, but they have much labor yet to perform. The thorough organization of the party must be effected—we must not only know our strength, but be prepared at the proper moment to command it.—Let us continue in the spirit in which we have commenced, let us spare no toil and shrink from no sacrifices of time and effort from now, henceforth, and we shall achieve as splendid a triumph on the 5th of November, as that which in the Presidential canvass crowned us with the wreath of victory, and humbled Locofocoism and its aspirations in the dust.

☞ A letter received at Augusta, from a gentleman in the interior, speaking of the cotton crop, says: "The crop in Georgia will be very short. The accounts which concentrate here from all quarters of the State are gloomy. The crop will scarcely equal two-thirds of that made last year."

KOSSUTH A PRISONER.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 20.

FLORIDA—THE FRENCH DIFFICULTY.

Despatches have been received by the War Department, which state that the Seminole chief disclaims all connection with the late outrages in Florida, and that he will deliver up the offenders to the Government.

The Washington Republic of this morning publishes a portion of the correspondence between Messrs. Clayton and Poussin—the substance of which I sent yesterday. The Republic says that there is no danger of a rupture with France, as things now stand.

MAINE.

There is no election of a Governor by the people in Maine. The Lower House will be Democratic. The Senate is doubtful.

SECOND DESPATCH.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 20th.

MORE OF THE POUSSIN AFFAIR.

The difficulty which has arisen with Mr. Poussin, originated during the Mexican war. Commodore Carpenter, while commanding the squadron sent out to blockade the ports of Mexico, saved from shipwreck the French bark Eu-[illegible]. He claimed legal salvage for his crew. This was refused, whereupon Commodore C. restored the ship to the Captain.—Mr. Clayton having approved of his conduct, a correspondence ensued between the Secretary of State and the French Minister, which the latter failed to lay before his Government, and likewise wrote a very insulting letter to Mr Clayton, reflecting on the honor of our Government. Gen. Taylor ordered all correspondence with the French Minister to be suspended, and his passports offered him. This is exactly the case at present. This is sent officially from Washington.

THIRD DESPATCH

We received last night the following despatch, containing the Cambria's news.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 21.

THE STEAMER.

The steamship Cambria arrived at Halifax on Wednesday evening, having sailed from Liverpool on the 8th inst., and brings one week's later intelligence from all parts of Europe.

Hungary.

The political news by the Cambria is quite important.

From Hungary we have the information that the fortresses of Comorn and Peterwardein still hold out, but negotiations for their surrender have already been entered into. Several Magyar chiefs have been executed, and amongst the number is an Austrian ex-Minister. Contrary to the news brought by the previous steamer, we learn with deep regret that the brave KOSSUTH has not made his escape. Our despatch mentions that the valiant chieftain, together with his children, were prisoners, and had arrived at Presburg. The larger portion of the Russian army is about leaving Hungary. Grosswardein, Buda and Pesth remain strongly entrenched. GEORGY has been pardoned by the Emperor of Austria.

Germany.

The question relative to the future political disposition of this country has been nearly settled.—Germany [illegible] is to be vested in the Cabinets of Vienna and Munich. The President of the Directory is to be alternately nominated by Austria and Prussia.

France.

The French Government, with its characteristic [illegible] refused passports to the political refugees to [illegible] through France on their way to America. Leon Marat has been appointed Minister to Madrid. We understand from our despatch that a [illegible] of the two parties in the French Cabinet.

Italy.

Jacob, the Pope's Minister for Home Affairs, has arrived at Rome, and [illegible] the protection of the French authorities.

The Austrian troops have evacuated Moreta, before [illegible] occupied by them in Piedmont.

Russia.

A Te Deum has been sung in all the Russian churches, in commemoration of the victory achieved over the Hungarians.

THE CHOLERA

This disease has continued to increase in London during the past week. The mortality is stated in our despatch at 8,000, of which 1653 of cholera. [Evidently some mistake in the figures.—EDITORS.] The malady is also raging in Liverpool, Dublin, Paris, Berlin and Vienna.

BUSINESS.

The markets during the past week have been generally dull, but prices are unchanged. The weather continues fine and trade active, employment in the manufacturing districts being abundant.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET

The sales of Cotton during the week have amounted to 36,240 bales, of which 8340 on speculation and 6070 for export. The imports in the same time were 60,3[illegible]. Uplands range from 4½ to 5⅞d. The quotations are not reliable, but prices are considered to be unchanged with the exception of the middling and interior grades, which are a shade lower.

BREADSTUFFS

Generally speaking, the Corn trade has been dull and the sales small. Indian Corn has been a better request, at 25s.6d. to 26s. per quarter for yellow, and 28s. for white. The Flour market is rather heavy.

PROVISIONS.

Bacon has been in better demand, and prices are steady. Mess Pork is quoted at 35 to 3[illegible] new, 45s. Lard is very dull.

MONETARY.

The London Money market continues to be abundantly supplied, and the rate of discount for first class paper is unchanged.

In addition to what is contained in our second despatch relative to the Poussin affair, we find some further information of interest in the Picayune of yesterday. The correspondent of that paper writes as follows:

The National Intelligencer contains a brief editorial of the recent affair with France, giving particulars, but of an explanatory character simply, with a view to quiet the public mind. It states that no interruption of the amicable relations subsisting between the two countries is anticipated.

The Washington Republic contains an official statement, with correspondence filling two columns, contradicting the accounts sent you by telegraph last night. [illegible] The offensive words of the French Minister are as follows: "I am sorry to find the American Government is so utterly insensible to the dignity and so ignorant of the interests of its marine service as it has shown itself to be in this transaction."

When this letter was laid before the French Government, M. De Tocqueville, Minister of Foreign Affairs addressed a note to Mr. Rush, stating that the French Executive "sees no occasion for its action, and that there has been unnecessary recrimination and marked faults on both sides." In this manner it seeks to divide the responsibility, and directly to inculpate our Government.

On the receipt of this note President Taylor directed that no further intercourse be held with M. Poussin, and that passports be made out and placed at his disposal. He also instructed Secretary Clayton to inform M. De Tocqueville that his opinion on the conduct of the American Government had not been solicited; that action, and not criticism, had been expected from him, and that "before this despatch reached him, M. Poussin's passports would be placed at his disposal."

On Friday night last (14th) M. Poussin's passports were prepared, and on Saturday (15th) they were transmitted to the French Legation at Washington. M. Poussin was then at New York, but he arrived at the Legation last evening (19th).

The offensive language in the Minister's first letter about the tobacco claim is as follows: "He was convinced that it would be more honorable on the part of the United States Government to acquit forty a debt contracted during the war, under the pressure of necessity, than to evade its payment, by endeavoring to damage the character of an honest man." The same note charged Col. Childs with perjury.

A despatch a few hours later says, "there is a rumor current that M. Poussin, the French Minister, has apologized to our Government."

MAINE.—The Portland Advertiser says that the result of the election in Maine, as to the complexion of the House and the election of the Governor by the people, is doubtful. The Locofocos will probably have a majority in the House of Delegates. The Senate, at the opening, it is believed, will stand fifteen Whigs and eleven Locofocos. Mr. Hubbard, the Locofoco Governor, is believed to have been elected by the people.

It will be seen from the above, that the Whigs have gained largely in Maine; yet Locofocoism rejoices at having barely succeeded in a State which the Whigs have never carried but once in five and twenty years. Truly the Locos must want something to be thankful for, when they shout over Maine.

WHEELING DISTRICT.—Lieutenant-Governor John M. Patton has issued a proclamation for a special election in the 15th District of Virginia, on the 8th of November, to supply the vacancy caused by the death of the Honorable Mr. Newman.

WHIG CONVENTION.

The Delegates from the different Representative Districts of the parish of Orleans met at the St. Louis Exchange on Saturday evening Sept. 22d, for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent the Whig party in both branches of the Legislature, and a candidate for the office of Sheriff of the parish.

The meeting was called to order by R. B. SYKES, Esq., who called to the chair I. N. MARKS, Esq.

On motion of W. C. TOMPKINS, Esq., it was—

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chair, to retire for the purpose of nominating officers for the convention.

The chair appointed W. C. TOMPKINS, L. EYMA, PERRY SEWELL, F. L. BARTELETT, R. GARDERE.

In a short time the committee returned, and through the chairman, W. C. TOMPKINS, reported the following officers, who were unanimously chosen:

For President—RANDALL HUNT.

For Vice-Presidents—1st Representative District, G. E. Harrall; 2d do., C. M. Lyttle; 3d do., S. Harby; 4th do., L. F. Hezean; 5th do., J. Lanata; 6th do., J. Norris; 7th do., J. Bernendez; 8th do., R. J. Oliver; 9th do., D. Veau; 10th do., Thos. Hasam.

Secretaries—First Municipality, E. Solomon; Second Municipality, J. E. Layet; Third Municipality, P. L. Mailloux; Algiers, R. Gardere.

The President, RANDALL HUNT, Esq., having taken his seat, made a short address, setting forth the objects of the Convention, and calling upon the Whig party to sustain the President of the United States, a gallant son of Louisiana, who is now opposed by the other party in the most vile and bitter manner; that we had struggled long to attain the ascendancy, and had finally succeeded; and that having done so, it was only necessary to put our shoulder to the wheel and after selecting our candidates, to elect them.

The Secretary then proceeded to call the roll, when one hundred and seventy-nine delegates answered, and took their seats.

Mr. MURPHY moved that each delegation should be entitled to the number of votes that their respective districts were entitled to representatives. Adopted.

On motion of Mr J. E. LAYET, the Convention took a recess of five minutes, to enable the delegates to consult.

The Convention resumed its labors, and the Secretary called the different delegations, which voting by representative districts, cast their suffrages unanimously for T. G. HUNT, CYPRIEN DUFOUR and FELIX LABATUT, as candidates for the Senate.

The Convention then nominated the following ticket for the lower House:

First District—M. W. MATHEWS, PRESTON W. FARRAR.

Second District—E. T. PARKER, T. H. SHEILS, C. J. LEEDS.

Third District—W. H. AVERY, M. HURLEY, G. S. HAWKINS, W. J. MCLEAN, J. L. SHEAFE, Judge CURRY.

Fourth District—F. A. LUMSDEN, J. G. SEVIER, WM. M. FLEMING.

Fifth District—H. C. CASTELLANO, P. DEVERGES, G. DREUX.

Algiers—A. B. SEGER.

On motion of J. E. LAYET, Esq., it was

Resolved, That this Convention proceed to the nomination of a candidate for Sheriff for the Parish of Orleans.

Mr J. E. LAYET then nominated JAMES P. FRERET, Esq., which was carried by acclamation.

The President then made a few remarks, congratulating the Convention on the unanimity of feeling, as expressed by the Convention, and the meeting adjourned.

RANDELL HUNT, Pres't.

P. L. MAILLOU,
R. GARDERE, } Secretaries.

FROM MEXICO.—The Royal Mail steamer Severn arrived at her anchorage in Mobile Bay on Thursday last, having left Vera Cruz on the 15th and Tampico on the 16th. She brings among her passengers, the Hon. Nathan C. [illegible]ford and lady; Alexander Atocha, &c. We take from the Mobile Herald and Tribune the following summary of her news:

Considerable speculation is going on relative to the destination of the Round Islanders, under Col. White. From the Rio Grande to the Balize, the alarm has been given to all the intermediate ports of the coast, each city fearing a sudden attack. Gen. Vega had sent a courier to the Federal Government to demand succor. Governor Barbacano, surrounded as he was by Indian difficulties, had drawn together imposing forces of infantry, cavalry and artillery, among the Yucatan ports. He fears only for Laguna, which he recommends with solicitude to the Mexican Government.

The Mexican Consul, at New Orleans, had advised the Commandant General at Tamaulipas of the intended departure of 800 armed Americans, with two steamers, for the island of Lobos, which is about twenty-five or thirty miles from Tampico. This news had caused great excitement, and is supposed to be a movement in concert with the friends of Santa Anna on the borders of the Rio Grande.

The Government, up to the last advices, was making extensive preparations of defence in the cities along the coast.

The Chamber of Deputies has terminated the discussion on the new tariff, which will doubtless soon become a law.

The puros, in the recent elections, had gained the advantage.

Antigua, a locality of the State of Vera Cruz, has been inundated, in consequence of the heavy rains. The rush of waters was so rapid as scarcely to give the inhabitants time to fly. The Government of Vera Cruz had made an appeal to public philanthropy to aid the sufferers.

Madame Bishop, Bochsa and Valtellina were performing in Puebla.

It is stated that Ariscorreta, the Governor of the State of Mexico, has deserted his post and fled to Iguala, on account of the resistance his [illegible] of July last has met with; and that [illegible] session of the Legislature, for the purpose of appointing his successor, was at first unable to find a man capable of holding the [illegible] during the present troublesome times, but finally settled on the Lieutenant Governor, Luis Madrid.

The Trait d'Union, of the 13th August, has an interesting account of the annual banquet of the French and German National Guards, given in the city of Mexico, on the 15th ult.

Here follows an account of the banquet which we omit, as we published a sketch of it some ten days ago.

FROM TEXAS.—The steamship Galveston, Capt. CRANE, arrived here on Saturday, bringing files of papers to the 20th inst. The election news is summed up as follows:

We have now official returns from nearly all the counties in the State. The total vote, thus far, stands as follows:

For Governor—Wood, 7726; Bell, 9769; Mills, 2279.

For Lieutenant-Governor—Greer, 9151; Henderson, 6256; Johnson, 770.

For Commissioner of the Land Office—Smythe, 11,346; Ward, 5644.

For Congress—Western District—Howard, 4120; Pilsbury, 1135; Williamson, 2976; McLeod, 721.

For Congress—Eastern District—Kaufman, 8324; Fitzgerald, 301; Scattering, 62.

There is nothing else of the slightest importance in the journals.

NEW BOOKS.—Our thanks are due Appleton & Co., publishers, through J. B. Steel, No. 14 Camp street, for the following new publications:

The Maiden Aunt.—This is the republication of an extremely beautiful and touching story, by an unknown author. It is one of the most graceful and natural fictions we have ever read.

Hearts and Homes, or Social Distinctions, a story, by Mrs. Ellis. This is the first part of Mrs. Ellis' last and most popular work. It possesses all the charms of her style, and is marked by searching delineation of character and a sound and healthy moral tone.

Class Book of Zoology, by Professor Jaeger. This is an outline of animated nature, designed for the use of common schools and academies. It is arranged with due regard to method and simplicity, and is profusely illustrated with wood cuts.

The Story of a Genius, or Cola Monk.—We have here contrasted with considerable felicity the Italian and English intellect, as well as the burning passions of the one and the comparative phlegm of the other. The story is very well told.

An easy introduction to Spanish conversation, containing all that is necessary to make a rapid progress in it. By M. Velasquez de Cadena.—This is a capital little volume, and we recommend it to all students of the dignified and sonorous Castilian.

THE MAIL failed yesterday from beyond Philadelphia. This has happened regularly every Sunday for five or six weeks. What is the reason?

Great Excitement in St. Louis—Mysterious Disappearance—Family Poisoned—Incendiarism—Murder, &c.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.

On Wednesday last Mrs. Malten, a German woman, disappeared in a very mysterious manner. Search was made for her, but in vain.—Yesterday some persons found some articles of female clothing near the Medical College, which were recognized as belonging to Mrs. M. This soon raised a large mob, and it being generally believed that the woman had been kidnapped by some of the students, great excitement prevailed. The mob swelling; threats were made to tear down the college. In the meantime a search warrant was issued, and the college thoroughly examined, but no trace was found to justify the belief that Mrs. M had been decoyed into the building. A portion of the mob continued to loiter about the college during the night, but the presence of the authorities restrained them from any violence.

Bernard Seller yesterday administered a dose of arsenic to his family, consisting of his wife and child, and it is very doubtful whether they will recover.

The inhuman monster has been arrested and committed to prison.

Some scoundrels made two unsuccessful attempts yesterday to blow up Smith's flouring mills.

There were several attempts at incendiarism, and one murder committed, last night.

The weather is cool and invigorating, and the city very healthy.

Mail Robbery—Arrival of the German Patriot—News from St. Domingo.

The United States mail of the 11th, from Geneva, and due here on Thursday, was stolen entire somewhere between Geneva and this city. The robbers have not yet been detected and none of the matters stolen recovered.

The celebrated German patriot, who rendered himself conspicuous during the recent difficulties, arrived here last night in a packet from Havre. His name is Frederick Hecker.

By an arrival from St. Domingo, we have information that the Congress of that island has proclaimed Gen. Santa Anna Liberator and General in Chief of the Dominican army, as a reward for his services.

From Indian River—More Depredations.

The steamer Mina, Capt. Magee, arrived here yesterday from the Southern coast, whither she had gone to convey three companies of U. S. troops. By her we learn that the Indians had returned to the settlements on Indian river, and burned several more of the houses. Messrs. J. H. Gattis, Lyvans, and others, who made their escape in July last, on the first outbreak, had returned to Indian river, to look after their property, and with the intention of endeavoring to maintain their position. They have now, the second time, been compelled to flee for their lives, and have now gone to Key West. They discovered the approach of the Indians in time to make their escape. One or two companies of troops are now stationed at Indian river, and if the Indians again make their appearance, it is to be hoped they will meet with a warm reception.

The steamer Nina proceeds this day to Palatka, for the purpose of conveying Maj. Rowland's company down the Southern coast.

The three masted schooner Andrew Mitchell, from Philadelphia, is now in port, and will sail first wind.

FROM JAMAICA.—The steamship Portland, from Chagres via Kingston, brings us Jamaica papers to the 13th. They are filled with the controversy between the Governor and the House of Assembly. In the address of the House to the Governor, the differences between the Executive and Legislative power are referred to, and a determination manifested to adhere to the principle of appropriating the revenue as the Legislature may think proper. The Governor replies that the Ministers of the Crown will take some part in determining the appropriations of the annual supplies. The revenue of the Island is exceeded some £25,000 by the expenditures. The import duties have fallen off £16,000.
