PENMANSHIP.

MESSRS. DOLBEAR & BROTHERS respectfully give notice that they have returned and re-opened their WRITING ACADEMY at No. 8 Chartres street, where Penmanship in all its variety is taught.

Lessons will be given through the day, and until 10 o'clock in the evening. Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residence. By this system—the Carstairian—a more rapid business style may be acquired in two weeks than usually effected in years by the old method.

Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens written by persons of various ages in this city and elsewhere.

All those who had not time to finish their lessons last season, can do so now free of charge.

They would also inform those who have applied to them for copies of the system, that the next edition will be out in the course of the winter.

In order to give transient persons who have not had an opportunity to examine for themselves—the opinion of those who have, the following report is presented. For others see Circulars.

NEW ORLEANS, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if NOT UNPARALLELED progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

JACKSON FAUBOURG.
1500 Valuable Lots in the vicinity of the City,
BY FERNANDEZ & WHITING.

WILL be sold without reserve, and to the highest bidder, at Hewlett's Exchange, on Monday the 12th of January, 1835, and the following days, 1500 lots of Ground, situate in faubourg Jackson, in the rear of the city, as per plan approved by the City Council, and exhibited at the Exchange Coffee House, to which reference is made:

These Lots are situated on the left side of the Bayou St John; and between the said Bayou and the New Orleans Canal, at a distance of not more than one mile and a half from the city. The advantages of their situation are numerous; and for gardens, milk establishments, country seats, small farms, or summer residences, it surpasses, by its local situation and proximity to the city, any piece of land that can be offered.

These lots are generally on high land, and require no expense to be put into immediate cultivation. The land is new and the soil is very rich, and well adapted for gardening; it affords also excellent pasturage for cattle.

These lots are of greater importance to speculators and individual, than might be thought of at first. By an ordinance of the City Council, Orleans street must be opened to the Bayou St John, and is already half finished, and it is projected to make a rail road upon the said street to the Bayou: and it is proposed to remove the bridge immediately on that street, and by an other ordinance Canal street will be opened to the Metairie road; and ultimately, there is no doubt, all the streets of the city. The splendid shelled road made along the Canal, Carondelet, and the other existing communications, together with those commenced and projected, will afford easy access to the City.

The rapid increase of the faubourg Trenie, which will reach the Bayou St John in a very short time, the improvements undertaken and undertaken by the "The Company of Architects of the Eighth Ward," and in conclusion the city having extended itself considerably up and down the coast, must necessarily go as it is rapidly going back. All these are advantages which must tend greatly to enhance the value of these lots.

Terms of Sale:—1 5th cash, and the balance at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years credit, in notes without endorsement and with mortgage. The acts of sale to be passed before Joseph Cuvillier, not. pub. at the expense of the purchasers, and to take possession through the City Surveyor, at their own expense.

P S. All purchasers will have the privilege of cutting wood upon the on enclosed lots. dec 31
