WASHINGTON, (Ga.) Sept. 16.

"A GREAT MAN HAS FALLEN IN ISRAEL."

It is our melancholy duty to announce the death of the Hon. WM. H. CRAWFORD. He expired on the morning of the 15th inst. within eight miles of Elberton, whither he was going to hold his semi-annual Court. He was taken violently with the bilious cholic, and died the day after he was attacked.

Georgia has lost her distinguished son—and our country one of its most prominent citizens. His loss will be deeply felt, and his death profoundly regretted. Truly we say

"In the midst of life, we are in death!"

GLOBE—EXTRA.

WASHINGTON CITY, September 13.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM MAINE.

The Star in the East, is still the Day Star of the Democracy of the Union. We give below the returns from the Portland district. Portland, the city in which the Bank reigns, it was thought would give tone to the whole district and defeat Mr. Smith the uncompromising and faithful Democracy candidate. And there certainly never was a greater exhibition of the Bank's power to create men, than that just made in Portland. At the election before the last, Smith's vote in Portland was 874. Cutter's [the opposition candidate] 894. At the late election, Smith held his own—his vote, being 869. But Churchil, the Bank candidate, got 1426!! Here the Bank must have sown dragon's teeth—more than 500 votes started up at its command. They were imported—but the "native raws" of the farmers, as Mr. Webster's Boston Courier calls them, were laid upon the aristocracy, and put down the corrupt growth of the city.

The Democratic Governor is no doubt elected, from the indications in the Portland and York Districts, by an increased majority in the State.

We shall certainly have a gain in Congress of one member, in the person of Mr. Fletcher, from Vermont, and we may well hope for another in that of Mr. Van Ness.

So it goes in the East. The result is not doubtful in New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. Our friends may rely on a succession of triumphs, this fall, from Maine to Georgia, with the exception of South Carolina.

Extract from a letter dated

ALVANO, Monday at midnight, Sept 8, 1834.

I give you the result of this day's election in York county. There are 25 towns entitled to 21 Representatives, and 3 Senators—returns are received from 22 towns—Lebanon, Buxton, and Hollis, not heard from, the two latter decidedly democratic, and the first about equally divided.

Dunlap for Governor, has over Sprague 1114, which will be increased to about 1200. Three democratic Senators elected, eight federal Bank Wigs, and twelve democratic Representatives heard from—the probable results 10 federalists and 14 democrats. John Holmes elected by one majority in Alfred, but his election will be contested and no doubt defeated.

No election to Congress. In 22 towns Goodwin the regular democratic candidate, has 3090—Hayes 456—McDonald, 495—two irregular democratic candidates; and Porter, the federal Bank candidate, 2935. The three towns to be heard from will be divided about the same ratio.

LATE FROM MEXICO.

By the schooner Mary & Francis, from Vera Cruz, we have received our files up to the 15th inst. Peace and harmony continues at Vera Cruz. About $2,500,000 have been lately exported from that city; of which sum $2,000,000 have been shipped to England.

The Legislature of the State of Mexico has sent as Senators to Congress, Messrs. José Maria Cuevas Inclan and Epignacio de Villanueva.

The installation of the Chamber of Deputies and of the Senators' Room for the 5th constitutional Congress, has taken place on the 31st August, 1834.

LATE FROM SPAIN.

By the politeness of two commercial houses of this city, we were favoured with Havana papers, up to the 20th inst. inclusive. They contain news of great interest from Spain, brought thither by the Spanish brig El Vapor, in 33 days' passage from Cadiz. We have Madrid dates up the 9th August and Cadiz to the 14th. The most interesting intelligence therein contained is that of the defeat of the rebel Zumalacarregui, by the troops of Genera Espartero.

The Spanish Government has recognised that of Greece: D. Mariano Montalvo has been sent as chargé d'affaires at the Court of H. M. king Othon.

BAYONNE, Aug. 4.

According to the official communications received at the Spanish Consulate, and the despatches received by Don Joachim Ferrer, procurador of the Cortes, and the staff officer Don Miguel de Araoz, of the army of Gen. Rodil, intelligence has been received of the defeat of the main body of the faction of Navarre. The Governor of the fortress of St. Sebastian has forwarded the following item:

"5 o'clock, P. M.—I have just received of the brigadier commanding this province, Don Gaspar de Jauregui, a despatch which contains the following: the main body of the faction have been defeated yesterday, the 1st instant, till Sturgoyen, and the troops of the queen are in pursuit of the retreating in all directions.

"The following is furnished to Your Excellency for information, according to the promise I had made in my letter of this morning. God, &c.

St. Sebastian, August 2, 1834.

JOSE DE ABURRUZA.

To Don Miguel dh Araoz.

The captain general of Valence, under date of the 28th ult. addresses the Secretary of War as follows.—The Brigadier Don Jose Santa Cruz, commanding the East from the Mountains to the country between Lorita and Pobleta informs me of the following particulars: "Having learned from spies that Cabrera had left the plains and mountains of Torrosa, I had no doubt that he would join Morella's party below Aragon, with the view of surprising some small detachment as he had already done, in consequence I made two forced marches from Conta, and reached him in the neighborhood of Zorita, whose detachment he was going to attack.

His forces consisted of 664 men, all Catalans, and mine of 210. The place where I happened to meet him was the least favorable that could have been found, being a mountain covered with thick pines, and offering several positions.

The onset was intrepidly carried by my guerillas, but I had the misfortune of losing the captain (having the rank of lieutenant colonel) of the 1st regiment of the line, Dn Bartolomeo Serrano, who commanded them. The 2nd Lieutenant was also severely wounded—These circumstances induced the guerillas to recede, and the factious believing that the moment of their victory had come, they threw themselves upon my troops with much ardour—but the company of Cazadores of the first line, which was near at hand, commanded by the captain Don Francisco Ignacio Martinez, held them in check, and forced them to back as many times as they attempted a charge. The fight here was very obstinate, and the lieutenant Dn. Francisco Ignacio Martinez and Dn. Antonio Casariego with some soldiers made themselves conspicuous by their intrepidity which inspired the troops with a new ardor—for two hours they defended the positions, and the enemy finding that he could not advance one step without suffering heavy losses, they withdrew, giving up the attempt.

The Carabiniers who until then had been kept in reserve, begun to act on the right of the mountain, but the enemies withdrew rapidly by the other side, directing their march through the pine forests on the mountains of Becoyte, leaving on the battle field 50 dead, as results from the report made by the lieutenant Dn Bartolomeo Rosello.

My loss, though but small, as the dead amount only to 3 Cazadores of the 1st Regiment of the line, a Sargeant of the 13th and a soldier of Morella's company and six wounded, is much to be lamented on account of the death of Captain Serrano.

His son Dn Bartolome, cadet of the 1st Regiment, was standing by his side when the misfortune happened and although surrended by a great number of insurgents he kept his post with the greatest intrepidity.

I cannot refrain from recommending to your excellency the gallant young man, who unless her majesty is benevolent to him, will be obliged to quit the service. Besides, the officers whose valor has been remarkable in the action, viz: Martinez of the 1st of the Line, and Casariero of the 13th. I cannot but mention honorably the Lieutenants Don Bartolomeo Rosello, Don Dalmatio, Aragonez, and Don Fernando Otero, as well as the adjutant of the same corps, Don M. Ciudad de la Hoz, and the captain of a regiment of cavalry, Don Martin Ramirez, who being prevented from taking a part in the affair on account of the roughness of the road, availed himself of a small plain on the side of the mountain to prevent the guerillas of the enemy from going thro' that part.

The troops of Aragon who defended the points of Monioge, Penaroya, &c., joined together in hearing the fire in the mountains, (which lasted from 5 o'clock to half past eleven A. M.) commanded by the officers of the 13th of the Line, Don Vicente Loracillo, and Don Bernardo Desis; but when they arrived on the field of action, the enemy had disappeared

Before I conclude, I take the liberty of praying you to recommend to the benevolence of her majesty Don Bartolomeo Lerrano, cadet of the regiment of infantry, son of the valiant captain of the same corps, slain in the aforesaid fight. Reserving to myself to recommend with my wonted impartiality the other officers or soldiery who deserve it.

REMARKS.

The weather is favorable to out-door affairs, and the Mississippi, as last noticed, 12 1-2 feet below high water mark. Generally, business remains without sensible improvement, and transactions on but a limited scale.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 19th inst. of Louisiana and Mississippi, 3122 bales (3115 of which is of the new crop) Tennessee and North Alabama, 48—together, 3170 bales.—Cleared in the same time: for Bremen, 407 bales; New-York, 1428—together, 1835;—making an addition to stock of 1335, and leaving on hand, inclusive of all on ship-board not cleared on the 25th instant, a stock of 5,300 bales. The demand is, probably, as good as it could be when the season and the stock are taken into consideration. The sales of the week are estimated at 2590 a 3000 bales, at from 15 a 15 1-2 cents round. Among the sales, we notice particularly the following, viz: 411 at 14 7-8, 105 at 15 1-2, 330 at 15 1-4, 63 at 15 1-2, 104 at 15 1-4, 297 at 15, 20 at 15 1-4, and 50 at 15, of the new crop of Louisiana and Mississippi, and 166 at 13 7-8, 104 at 15, 71 at 13 1-2, and 22 at 11 cents per lb. of the old. We give it as the opinion of several merchants, with whom we have conversed, that owners would do well to send their cotton in as early as possible, in order to avail themselves of present prices, and before time is given for the stock to accumulate.

SUGAR.—The good demand previously noticed continues, and it has now become scarce, not only in the City, but also on Plantation. There is but little remaining now in first hands; prices in the city range from 4 1-2 a 7 cents.—Cleared this week: for New-York, 330 hhds.; Philadelphia, 100 hhds.; Charleston, 201 hhds. 57 bbls.

MOLASSES.—The quantity coming is small and the demand limited; an occasional lot of good now and then arrives, and is worth from 20 a 22 cents per gallon, on the Levee. Cleared this week, for Philadelphia 50 hhds. 300 barrels.

TOBACCO.—There is very little doing in this article other than retailing; the only transaction of which we heard this week was the sale of 19 hhds., a fancy parcel, of Second and First quality, for 6 a 7 cents. Arrived this week, 21 hhds. Cleared in the same time: for Bremen, 226 hhds.; New-York, 105—together, 331 hhds.

FLOUR.—The stock of Flour in market is small; and, though there is not much wanting for export, the demand for home consumption is fair at $5 25 a $5 50 per bbl. Arrived this week, 1271 bbls., 550 of which is damaged.

PORK continues remarkably scarce, and the demand a little better; we quote Mess, inspected at $14; Prime, 10 a 11 per bbl.

BEEF.—The market still continues bare, or nearly so, of this article, and prices the same. Arrived this week, 73 barrels.

BACON.—There has been no late arrival of Bacon, and the market remains as last noticed. The demand is good and holders appear willing to take the quoted prices.

LARD remains without change in price, 8 cts. per lb. and the demand fair. Arrived this week, 105 kegs.

BUTTER.—The market is well supplied with Butter, particularly Western, which is very dull. Arrived this week, 415 kegs.

LEAD continues to experience a fair demand, and is generally taken as fast as it comes in. Sales through the week have been made at $4, $4 6 1-4 a $4 12 1-2 per 100 lbs.; the last transaction at the latter price. Arrived since last report, 7601 pigs.

SALT.—We hear of nothing new in relation to this article; transactions continue to quite limited at former prices.

BAGGING and BALE ROPE.—We continue to quote Bagging at 35 a 37, Rope at 7 a 8 cents. The scarcity of the former serves to keep up the price of the latter, the supply of which is large; as holders will only sell in proportional quantities. Arrived this week, 65 coils Rope.

WHISKEY is very scarce, and the demand rather improving; it is worth from 26 a 28 cents, according to quality. Arrived this week, 197 hhds.

COFFEE.—No particular change has taken place in the market, and there is very little business doing in it. Havana Coffee, of the green description, would meet with some demand, but there is none at present in the place.

RICE is selling for $4 per 100 lbs.; demand limited, but supply not large.

CANDLES, Sperm.—The price of Candles has declined; we quote them at 34 a 35 cents per lb. with rather a limited demand.

CORN is becoming scarce, and the demand is fair, at $1 12 1-2 per bbl. in the Ear; Shelled in sacks at 75 cts. per bushel. Arrived this week, 450 sacks.

HAY in lots of 100 bales, is selling for $1 per 100 lbs; at retail $1 25; demand moderate.

LIME, Thomaston, continues rather dull; we quote sales from store at $1 50 per cask.

FREIGHTS.—There is still hardly any thing offering, and as yet no settled rates; the ship Tacitus is taking in Cotton for Liverpool at 9-16d; the Manchester and Mozart for Havre at from 1 1-8 a 1 1-4 cent per lb.

STOCKS.—There is some inquiry about Stocks, but few operations effected.
