MEDICAL COLLEGE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, QUEEN STREET.

Under the superintendence of the Medical Society of South Carolina.

THE LECTURES in this Institution will commence as usual on the second MONDAY in November next. The different Chairs will be occupied by the following gentlemen:

B S. STROBEL, M.D, Professor of Anatomy;
Wm. HUME, M.D, Professor of Surgery;
G. S. SIMONS, M. D, Professor of Operative Surgery;
THOMAS Y. SIMONS, M. D, Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine;
HENRY ALEXANDER, M.D, Professor of Institutes of Medicine;
ANDREW HAZELL, M. D, Professor of Materia Medica;
CHARLES DAVIS, M.D, Professor of Chemistry;
FRANCIS Y. PORCHER, M.D. Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children;
E. HORRY DEAS, M. D, Demonstrator of Anatomy;

The MARINE HOSPITAL and the HOSPITAL connected with the Alms House in this city, are under the direction of the Faculty of this College. Clinical Lectures will be delivered twice a week, by two of the Professors, which the Students will be permitted to attend free of charge. The Commissioners of the Alms House have liberally appropriated one Ward of that institution for the reception of females during their accouchements. This department will be under the immediate charge of the Professor of Obstetrics.

To enable the Student to become acquainted with diseases peculiar to the negro race, the old College has been converted into an Infirmary, where such Medical gentlemen as are friendly to this School will send their patients, and give a history of each case, with the plan of treatment. The Faculty are sanguine in the hope of being thus enabled to concentrate upon their School most of the experience and talent of the Medical Society, an advantage not where else enjoyed. No effort shall be wanting to render this College worthy of the patronage of a liberal and intelligent public.

THOMAS Y. SIMONS, M.D.
Dean of the Faculty.

NOTICE to person desirous of acquiring in a short time, and at a trifling expense, the indispensable art of a beautiful hand writing.

Mr. DUCHESNE DUVERNAY, professor of Calligraphy, lately arrived from Paris, begs leave to inform his friends, and the public, that he will engage to correct in 25 or 30 lessons, the most bad hand writing, provided the pupil will second his efforts.

The great superiority of his method, over the ancient manner of writing consists in the continual movement of the wrist with the arm, this joint labour ingeniously managed accelerates the progress of the pupil. A more correct idea of the easy and beauty of his system may be formed by calling at his room.

In these days a fine hand writing, is indispensable to every man, from which he often derives a living, this manner of acquiring in a short time a fine hand is not to be neglected. In this there is no surprise to be feared of illusions quackery, no vain promises, nothing but what is punctually executed. The professor, strong by his numerous experiences, guarantees a full success.

He has two classes, one from 10 in the morning until 2 in the evening, the second from 5 till 8 in the evening. the first will be devoted for ladies the second for gentlemen. He will attend private lessons, and at boarding schools.

N B. The price of 30 lessons is $15.

His Academy is in St. Peter street, No. 138, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.

ACADEMIES.

POONAH PAINTING.

St. Philippe st. No 21, between Levee and Conde streets above the store of Mr. Garlepied.

NO Art is so calculated to improve the taste as that of Drawing. No study, therefore, is more beneficial to youth, none more gratifying in the declining period of life.

Many, however, are discouraged in their first attempt, and relinquish the Art as impracticable; but after taking few lessons in the Poonah style, their ready success will give them an inclination to poetry nature. The effort may be difficult at first but the difficulty will speedily vanish, while the advantages will be solid, and the gratification decisive.

The Points and Method of applying them are entirely new. In point of softness the painting much resembles a fine engraving in brilliancy and blending of colours, it surpasses all conception of the former style, but the great test supremacy it poses over the ordinary method is, that a knowledge of it may be acquired in a very short time, even by those who possess no taste in drawing, and no knowledge of the use of the pencil.

Mr. DE LOS RIOS,

Teacher of the new Style of Indian painting, &c in 9 lessons, respectfully request those ladies who are desirous of receiving lessons at their own residence, and who are unable to call at M. de Los Rios, place, to send their address to his dwelling. ——— There will be six classes each conducted by a different method, which will be arranged thus:

1st Class, drawing, painting, and golden on paper.
2d " lb lb lb on velvet, silk or cotton.
3d " lb lb lb on China or earthenware.
4th " lb lb lb preparing, golden, painting bronze, and varnishing, on boxes.
5th " Preparing, golden, and forming fruits and flowers with colored bronze, &c.
6th " Golden, to silver over bronze, silver, &c. on glass.

M. de Los Rios willingly guaranty to those promised proficiency; so certain he is, from the manner in which he gives lessons, that a pupil must acquire a knowledge sufficient to allow them to depend upon their own exertions, after having taken the lessons; and, unless such be the result, they will not, and cannot, expect any remuneration whatever.

The room in which M. De Los Rios exhibit his productions, is open to the public from 10 until 2; admittance may be gained by visitors obtained their names. sept 15
