LOUISIANA LEGION.

THE Louisiana Legion will appear on the Public Square on Sunday the 27th December, at 10 o'clock precisely in the morning, completely armed and equiped, to be passed in review, to celebrate the anniversary memorable BATTLE of the 23d December, 1812.

A distribution of musket and cannon cartridges, will be made on the Public Square. A rigid inspection of the muskets and cartridge boxes will take place by the officers of companies.

The officers commanding companies will be required to furnish on the parade ground, the exact number of their respective companies, and must furnish a squad of men to shut and guard the gates of the Public Square, a half an hour before the time fixed for the review.

The officers commanding companies are charged with the execution of the present order.

By order of Brigadier General J. B. PLAUCHE, commander of the Legion.

D. AUGUSTIN, Adj de Camp.

An act, for the organization and discipline of the Militia of the State of Louisiana, "approved the 8th March 1834."

SECT. 79. Be it further enacted, &c. That the commanding officer at any muster, may prescribe limits to his parade (no public road to be included); and if any one enter within such limits without the consent or permission of the commanding officer, he may be confined until the muster is dismissed at the discretion of the commanding officer, and if any one not on duty attempt to interrupt the exercises of the muster by loud noises or unruly conduct, the commanding officer shall have the power to order and keep them under guard until the muster is dismissed.

SECT. 17. Of the act approved on the 12th February 1813.

If at the parade or review of any corps, there should be among the spectators one or several persons belonging to that corps, the officer commanding shall have the right to command them to their post; and in case of refusal, to have them imprisoned during the day, and condemned to pay a fine, which will be fixed by the Court of Assessment, said fine not to exceed ten dollars. dec 10

PANORAMA

Now open every Evening.

In the large hall facing the Theatre, Camp street.—SINCLAIR'S grand perestrophic or moving Panorama of the different scenes in the life of the great NAPOLEON, commencing with the battle of Waterloo, the taking of his carriage, the coast of France, the exterior and interior of St Helena, and his funeral procession on that Island, &c; the whole comprises 12 different views—the movements of which are accompanied by a military band, and a description given of each view as it approaches. The public are most respectfully informed that this Panorama has been brought here and fitted up at a great expense in the above hall, it being the largest one that could possibly be obtained in this city; it has been exhibited two seasons in Niblo's Garden, New York—also in the principal cities in the Union with great success. Doors open each at 6 1-2 o'clock, and the curtain rises precisely at 7—open only in the evenings. A private entrance for ladies and families on Natchez street.

Admittance, 50 cents. For particulars, see handbills. nov 18
