PROBATE SALE.

WILL be sold at public auction, by the subscribing Parish Judge of the interior parish of Lafourche, on Monday the 3d of October, 1836, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Temple on Lake Barataria, at about fifteen miles from Bayou Lafourche, and near the mouth of bayou des Allemands or de la Ville, the property left by the late Antonio Dias, or formerly in community between him and Marie Feye, his surviving wife, to wit:

1st. The paid spot called the Temple, containing about 17 arpents front, with a number of buildings thereon:

N. B. The Temple is one of the finest sites in lower Louisiana; it is situated on Lake Barataria or Perrier's Bay, at a distance only of several hundred yards from the Barataria and Lafourche Canal; it is entirely composed of ridges and mounds of muscle shells, yielding good lime and an excellent substitute for paving pebbles. In the mounds have been frequently found curious Indian antiquities. The vine thrives there to perfection, and the orange, plum and peach trees grow on the beach, with surprising luxuriance. The place would be a very eligible one for a Hotel or Villa, and promise to visitors, in its fullest extent, the sports of angling, sailing, duck shooting, &c, and the pleasure of bathing, &c. &c.

2d. A certain tract of land, situate in the said parish, on the right bank of Bayou des Allemands, at about twelve miles from the Temple, and perhaps at nine miles in a straight line from Bayou Lafourche, which tract measures twelve arpents, or thereabout, in front, by forty arpents in depth.

3d. Another tract of land, known under the name of Vacherie Domé, situate on the left bank of bayou des Allemands, in the parish of St Charles, nearly opposite the tract last above described, distant about five leagues from the river Mississippi, and comprised between bayous
