WASHINGTON HOTEL, AT LAKE PONTCHARTRAIN.

THE subscribers, proprietors of the above Hotel, have the honor of informing the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that this establishment is elegantly fitted up for the reception of those who will honor it with their presence.

Private apartments are furnished for those wishing to have select parties and families, who wish to make a short residence or board throughout the summer—Those wishing to avoid the excessive heat of the summer can find a more desirable retreat in the environs of the city, as far as regards comfort, salubrity of air, and beauty of scenery.

The proprietors, anxious to obtain the patronage of those who would honor them with their visits, have spared neither pains nor expense; for the convenience of ladies, they have erected in the best possible style a Ladies' Bath. For the convenience of travellers and those whom the pure and fresh air draws thither, they will keep a Table D'hote. Dinner at 1-4 past 3 o'clock, P. M.—Breakfast at 8, A. M. and Supper at 8, P M.

The subscribers, in order to furnish their table daily with fresh fish, have fishermen constantly employed for that purpose. They will always be prepared to serve up repasts to parties, however large they may be.

They avail themselves of this occasion, to inform epicureans that their cellars are furnished with the best French and Foreign Wines, and the bar with the best of liquors.
j 25 C PENOT & CASSAGNE.

THE subscriber has the honor to inform the public and his friends, that his Hotel, situate at Mandeville on Lake Pontchartrain, will be ready on the 27th instant, to receive those who should wish to visit it, and those who should wish to spend the summer there. He has spared nothing to render this retreat comfortable and agreeable. The place is too well known to be described. To the establishment existing last year, he has added a house of 200 feet long, which will enable him to furnish his customers with 100 beds.

The substantial, new and fast running steam boat Delta, Captain Sheridan, belongs to the establishment, and will run as follows, viz:

She will start from the rail road on Saturdays, after the 6 o'clock train has reached the lake.

On Sundays the boat will start in the morning from the rail road after the seven o'clock car has arrived at the lake, and will touch at Lewisburg and Madisonville, and will start from Madisonville on Mondays at 4 o'clock in the morning, to be at Mandeville at 5 o'clock precisely, and start immediately.

Deliberations of the Commissioners of the General Sinking Fund.

SITTING OF THE 14th JUNE, 1836.

Resolved, That the ordinance of the City Council of New Orleans, according twenty years credit on 2-5th of the price of the sales of lots, in relief of the city, be published in two newspapers of this city in French and English, and that the Mayor, as President of the Commissioners of the General Sinking Fund, give notice at the same time, that those persons who do not come forward and settle according to the conditions named in said ordinance, previous to the first day of July, shall be considered as having renounced the privilege therein granted them, and will be required to pay their obligations at maturity in cash.

Sitting of April 2, 1836.

Resolved, That purchasers and owners of the lots situate between Canal and Esplanade streets, and which have been sold on the 23d January, 1834, by order of the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Louisiana, shall have the privilege of withdrawing the notes by them subscribed for the payment of said lots, and to substitute in their place, bonds or obligations in favor of the commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the city of N. Orleans, created by an act of the legislature, approved 8th March, 1836; said bonds or obligations to be payable in twenty years after the several instalments of each of said notes, bearing an interest at the rate of six and a half per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and secured by a special mortgage on said lots and on the improvements now existing, or which may hereafter exist thereon.

Be it further resolved, That all those who may wish so avail themselves of the privilege of substituting their bonds or obligations as above mentioned shall notify the mayor thereof, in writing, and said privilege shall be granted to them until the 1st of July, 1836, and they shall expressly renounce all right of postponing or delaying the payment of any of the said bonds or obligations on the ground of a defect in the title, unless there should be an eviction of the property by them purchased, pronounced by a judgment rendered in last resort by a competent tribunal.

Be it further resolved, That all those who are proprietors of vacant lots, and who shall wish to comply with the provisions above mentioned, shall, before furnishing their bonds or obligations, give to the mayor a sufficient security that buildings shall be created on said lots within one year from the date of said bonds.

Be it further resolved, That it shall be the duty of the several proprietors who shall have complied with the preceding provisions, to have the buildings on their said lots insured, and to transfer and deliver to the commissioners of the Sinking Fund, their policy of insurance.

Be it further resolved, That the first and second instalments of the said property shall be paid to the commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and the remaining three-fifths shall be allowed to remain on said property at an interest at the rate of six and a half per cent. per annum, payable in advance, half yearly, for the term of twenty years, at the option of the owner or owners of said property.
