Second day—A purse of $700, two mile heats, entrance $70.

Third day—A purse of $1000, three mile heats, entrance $100.

Fourth day, the Louisiana Jocky Club purse of $2000, four mile heats, entrance $150.

Fifth day—Mile heats, best three in five for the entrance money of the preceding days, making, in all probability a purse of $1200. Entrance 10 per cent on the amount, free for any horse.

Sixth day—The New Orleans plate, consisting of a splendid tea service of silver, valued at $1000. In this race 4 year colts and under will carry four pounds extra; 5 years old and over will carry 100 lbs. Entrance $100, four or more to make a race. The money to take the plate or money at his option. Two miles.

The above purses are free for any horse, mare or gelding in the Union, conforming to the rules of the club. The purses of each day will be paid to the winner on the spot, without discount.

The proprietor has fitted up this course at a heavy expense with the intention of establishing a permanent and fashionable race meeting, under the patronage of the Jockey Club, that will at once give confidence to all and ensure us to have this amusement in all its purity.

This new and most extensive establishment of the sort in America is situated immediately on the Rail Road from New Orleans to Carrollton, 4 miles from the former and in the limits of the latter city. By this road on every days, 1000 persons can be conveyed every half hour, immediately to the course for the small sum of 25 cents; the river road passes immediately by the track, also steamboats carry all passengers within a few steps of the course. The track is perfectly level and well adapted for fast time. It is 1 mile high, raised on the inside. The is now in rapid complete order, and a large portion of which is fitted for members of the club and ladies, capable of affording the most extensive view of every part of the race for miles on the track, will be one of the safest and best in the Union. The objections to racing heretofore have been very well founded, the ground of the track will be covered with and not saw dust, rendering it good in any weather, and at times free from dust or water. The accommodations for Ladies are fine and intelligent servants will be stationed with cistern water, in the room that conveniently in the river where there is now growing a Boating shed that will render it entirely safe to land horses at all times.

The great facility of bringing over horses here, & the inducement of large purses from the eastern and western cities in the Union, will ensure the superiority of the Southern turf from a like engaging stage.

The proprietor has received a letter from Mr Garrison, of Norfolk, Virginia, that he is on his way here with a full stable, amongst them is the celebrated Mr Jones, Miss Maynard, Virginia Graves and others. Col Bingaman will be here with the celebrated Angora, John Minor, Fanny Wright, &c. Mr Minor from Natchez, with Celebrity and others. Mr Perry & Barrow with Miss Rigge, Prince Talleyrand and Fanny Bell. Messrs Wells with the renowned Lindy Ellis, Dick Chinn, Wm. Lancaster and Jim Elliot. Duplantier with John Beasley, Landerdale and others. Col Claiborne with the famed Sinon and Hall, Adams, Cassandra, &c. Mr Johnston of Alabama with Red Mars, Splendid, Forester Filly, and Betsy Richelieu. Mr Hardin's stable will, in all probability be here, as will as Mr Starks, and Mr Jackson's celebrated Mr Jones from Alabama, Virginia, with several others from Tennessee, Kentucky and Georgia. These with the proprietors own stable, Mammoth, Richelieu, Yorkshire, &c. will ensure the greatest concourse of people and greatest celebrity than has ever been seen on any race course in the South.

The subscriber has for several years been the owner and proprietor of the race course at the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and feels confident that his knowledge of the so matters will enable him to give satisfaction. He resides the city of New Orleans and is not a stakeholder or the owner of the above celebrated horses, that nothing shall prevent their being here. The public may probably have their interest power again to witness such sport.

Y N OLIVER, Proprietor.

N. B. The celebrated Carrollton Hotel is situated within 100 yards of the course, where gentlemen desirous to patronize the sport with their horses, can find accommodations in a style that must please the most fastidious. This establishment has been really good under the superintendence of Mr Bennett, formerly of Washington City, D.C., and will be conducted particularly in reference to the comfort of the club and racers during the week. jan 9
