COLLEGE OF NEW ORLEANS, Nos. 28 and 30 Esplanade street, INCORPORATED IN MARCH, 1856.

[illegible]

Secretary of the English Language and Literature, Natural History and German.

WM. B. OLIVE, A. B., Prof. of Latin, Greek, Mathematics, and Nat'l Philosophy.

A. C. JANIN, Professor of [illegible] Painting.

THIS institution was opened in 1849, as a High School for Boys, and has long ranked among the best Seminaries in the South, Professor E. Bourcez, the founder of the school, and late President of the College, having resigned on account of ill-health, the Board of Visitors elected Mr. Cline, late the Professor of Mathematics, to fill the vacancy.

The Professors are gentlemen of sound learning and experience, and will be aided by skillful and efficient tutors.

No pains are spared to impart a solid education. A thorough knowledge of every branch is required, and superficial study discouraged.

Surveying and Botany are taught in the field; Chemistry and Philosophy are illustrated by experiments.

Students are admitted at all stages of advancement; they may pursue either the scientific or the classical course, and degrees will be conferred upon them when they have completed the studies prescribed by the Board of Visitors.

The College buildings are large and airy—the main study being 70 by 30 feet—besides numerous smaller rooms for recitation.

The Gymnasium is on very large and well ventilated play grounds, which afford ample room for air and exercise.

A limited number of Boarders will be received into the President's family.

Terms:

For Tuition, 7th class, per month ... $6 00
" 6th, 5th, and 4th class per month ... 9 00
" 3d, 2d, and 1st class ... 12 00
For Boarding (payable in advance) per quarter 70 00

Books, Stationery, Lessons in Drawing, Painting, Music and Fencing are charged separately.

For further particulars, please address the President, at the College.

Bourbon Academy. 32 BOURBON STREET, NEW ORLEANS. CONDUCTED BY J. A. ROSS.

THE plan of this institution comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and can continue till their education is complete, or till they are prepared to enter any College in the United States. They are divided into classes according to their talents and advancement.
