REMARKS.

Cotton—The market has been extremely dull during the week, the sales being so low as to be not taken, which may be considered among those cases where the sales contained in the large table, are based for this advanced stage of the season, which is now generally estimated at from 60 to 70,000 bales. It was our intention we this to have taken an accurate account of what was on hand and on ship-board, but finding the quantity so large, have concluded to wait until it becomes quite what reduced.

The sales which have come to our knowledge are as follows:—[illegible] bales Mississippi, at 17 cts; 94 at 15 7-8; 176 at 15 3-4; 1463 at 15 1-4; 100 at 15 3-8; 66 Mississippi and Louisiana at 17; 25 Mississippi and Alabama at 14 1-2; 16 Sea Island at 62; 8 Florida at 16; 1960 Tennessee at 16 1-2; 9 Louisiana at 15; 68 Alabama at 15; 212 at 14 1-2; 400 at 13 1-2; 56 at 13 1-2; and 524 Mississippi, 1024 Alabama, 257 of Bluster, at prices not transpired.

Advices were received yesterday from Liverpool to the 16th, and from Havre to the 15th May: the Liverpool market is represented at a decline on American cottons of ½d, but the Havre market stated to be more favorable, and a small advance had taken place. If there is any variation in the prices of our market since our last weekly report, they have been at lower rates; but we think there has been no material change; and what falling of may have been was on the lower quantities. Fine Mississippi and Louisiana are scarce, and maintain their former prices.

The total exports from this port last season was 834,758 bales. What exports this season up to this time is 698,184 bales, & elsewhere requires 112,267 bales to equal the exports of last season; the stock on hand being estimated at from 60 to 70,000 bales; it will therefore require 40,000 bales to be yet received, to equal the crop of last season.

Tobacco—The transactions in this article have been very limited during the week; what operations have taken place, have been in small parcels. There seem to be every indication of a decline from former prices we do not, however, change our quotations.

Sugar—This article continues dull, but holders remain firm at our quotations; but there are few transactions, except for city consumption.

Provisions—Supplies continue to arrive, and the demand is comparatively small for the quantity offering and pouring; there is but little doing in any article of the kind; prices are thought too high for any extensive shipments.

LIVERPOOL, May 14.

Cotton—The market continues in the same dull state the demand having been very limited during the whole of the week, and prices have still a tendency downwards, being generally considered 1-16d per lb lower than on the 5th inst: at the same time it must be observed, that holders do not appear disposed to force sales, and the imports continuing light, our stocks are 30,000 bales less than at the same date last year; the quantity taken for consumption since 1st Jan. is now accurately estimated to exceed that of the corresponding period in 1835. The sales this week are 9520 bales, of which 250 have been taken for export; the import is 11,000 bales.

Nothing of importance to notice in Rice. Tobacco quiet.

THE MARKET.—CHARLESTON, June 15.

Cotton.—There has been a fair enquiry for prime choice Upland at firm prices, while the lower qualities have been a dull and neglected. About 1700 bales were disposed of on Monday and Tuesday, near 1100 at from 18 to 20 cents the remainder at from 15 to 17. Of the former, 350 bales at 20 cents, were a selection from first rate planter's lots: 200 bales at 19 1-2 cents, selections from choice store lots. In long Cottons, very little, has been doing.

NEW-ORLEANS:

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1836.

FOR PRESIDENT

M. VAN BUREN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

"I prefer [illegible] that only you, but all the people of the United States shall now understand that [illegible] of the desire of that portion of them which is favorable to my elevation to the chief magistracy should be gratified, I must go into the presidential chair, the inflexible and uncompromised opponent of any attempt on the part of Congress to abolish slavery in the district of Columbia against the wishes of the slave holding citizens and also with the determination equally decided to resist the slightest interference with the subject in the states where it exists."—Martin Van Buren.

The voters of the Parish of Orleans are requested to meet on this day, Saturday 25th. at 8 o'clock P M, at the Ball Room of Mr J. Davis, Orleans street, in order to select seven candidates to represent the Parish of Orleans in the next Legislature.

Horrid Murder. Yesterday, the Coroner having been informed that the bodies of three men had been seen in the Bayou Cochon, a few miles from the light house, immediately sent out a boat to bring them to the Rail Road—where having summoned a jury, it appeared on examination of the bodies, that one of them was John Cherry, who had lived at that place for many years—that on Tuesday last he came to town, and received about $150 for some timber he sold; he borrowed a skiff and returned the same day to his dwelling house at Bayou Cochon,—yesterday morning the skiff was found at the light house, his body had been mutilated, the right shoulder nearly severed from the body, and several stabs with a knife or dirk inflicted upon his person. A grate bar was tied around his body.

The second individual is J. Irish Barney, who had an iron mast clamp tied around his body—a section of the breast and belly had been made with some large cutting instrument.

The third is unknown: a bottle was tied around his neck, the body was cut open from the neck down, and the intestines torn out. The perpetrators of this foul deed have not, as yet, been ascertained.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

By the papers that reached us last evening, we perceive that there has been several arrivals from Europe at New York, viz: Packet ship Francois 1st, from Havre; ship Orpheus, Bursley, from Liverpool, 16th of May; ship President, Chaldwick, from London, 9th May.

The political intelligence furnished by these arrivals, will be found in another column.

The latest advices from Liverpool, show a further decline in that market, while the same dates from Havre evince an improvement fully to correspond, as will be seen by referring to the commercial accounts.

Northern papers to the latest dates were received by the mail of last evening.

The Columbus, (Geo.) Herald, contains further accounts of the depredations committed by the Indians; they appear to be still mustering, and determined on unremitting hostilities. The same paper states that, Troops have been coming steadily in from the first of the Indian excitement, and the entire force now here, and in the neighborhood is not less than 3000.

A short extract from a South Carolina paper, reflecting upon the President, was placed upon our file, and found its way into our columns of yesterday. We know not the motive that could have actuated any person to pick a shameful piece of conduct; let it come from what source it may, if a repetition takes place, we shall leave no stone unturned to discover the perpetrator.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

Every attempt is being made by the opponents of this gentleman, to prejudice the South against him, and although we fully believe that time will show that their attempts have been futile, still we cannot suffer the aspersions that some prints have thrown upon him to go unnoticed. The gauling sin of Mr. Van Buren, but one that is scarcely ever hinted at, is the crime of his having, by his talents and political consistency, raised himself from the lower walks of life to a station at once proud and elevated—a station, which his opponents, with all their wealth and influence, are unable to reach.

Martin Van Buren's political course has been one and consistent: ever keeping in view the great democratic principles, that have conduced to make our country what she is. His enemies may lay any charge against him they choose, whether it be non committal,—magician,—abolitionist,—intriguer—not a single charge can be truly substantiated. That he is a great politician, it is not attempted to be denied,—are not Clay, Calhoun and Webster great politicians?—Even Judge White is somewhat of a politician: but not sufficiently versed in all its intricacies to open shop on his own account, as he will doubtless discover before long this year has passed.

Mr. Van Buren's casting vote on the disposition of the abolition petition, will put to silence the assertion that he is inimicable to southern interests and southern principles. We are disposed to laugh to scorn [illegible] Oust & Mar, 11th inst. [illegible] 7th packet ship Francois I, capt Cartwell, arrived [illegible] bringing us Paris and Havre papers to the [illegible] no political intelligence of [illegible] which we are therefore [illegible] extracting the following account [illegible] which has visited Paris [illegible] part of the [illegible] under the treaty.

The Messenger contains accounts of serious damages done in various parts of France by the rapid rising of the rivers, occasioned by the sudden melting of the snow which has fallen in various parts of the provinces.

The closing prices of the French Funds on Wednesday were—

VIENNA, May 1.—The evacuation of Cracow by the troops of the protecting powers, after the attainment of the declared object of it, may have rather surprised those who dreamt that the occupation of the republic would continue for years. It is surely a length of time when considering the steps of those powers, which ought not to be suspected of any injustice, or even participation, to wait for the issue before we pronounce on them.

EKIERSBURG, May 3.—On the 1st May we had a full snow to the depth of a foot, which, however, did not hinder Col. Teshers from proceeding in his survey for the iron rail road.

The Leipsic Gazette has a letter from Constantinople of the 12th of April, which says that alarming accounts had been received from Bosnia by the Saraskiers, and that both the Visier of Roumelia and the Visier of Bosina asked for reinforcements in consequence of which orders were sent for 3,000 regular troops to proceed immediately from Adrianople to that province. Assistance from Prince Milosh also expected.

Extract of a letter, dated

LONDON, May 14.

Mr. Jaudan has just concluded a bargain on behalf of the U. S. Bank, which may possibly have some effect on your exchanges. The conditions of the bargain are these, that the U. S. Bank issue bonds to the extent of one million and a half sterling, £100 sterling per bond, redeemable at three periods of 12, 18 and 24 months, in equal proportions, with interest, payable in London at 5 per cent—both the interest and principal to be paid without reference to the exchange between the two countries. It has not yet transpired how the transmission of this sum will be conducted, whether in specie or by the Bank drawing.

Business appears to be going on prosperously in this country, but money is more in demand, and will we think continue for some time, particularly if the operation above alluded to should be conducted in specie.

UNDERTAKING OF MR. O'CONNELL.—The protracted inquiry into the Dublin election terminated on Saturday last, by the Committee, after more than an hour's deliberation, coming to the decision, that "Messrs. O'Connell and Ruthven were not duly elected, but that Messrs West and Hamilton were duly elected, and ought to have been returned;" but it is added that the opposition was not frivolous or vexatious. Meanwhile, Mr. O'Connell, anticipating that the decision of the Committee would be against him, has addressed the electors of Kilkenny, the seat for which has been vacated to make room for the Liberator. The election will take place to-morrow. The men of Kilkenny have come to the resolution to return Mr O'Connell free of expense, and have requested that he will not leave London to attend the election. The honorable and learned gentlemen will, therefore, be able to resume his seat before the close of the present week.

A letter from Boston, dated 9th inst says: 'Our harbors, (upper and lower) are crowded with vessels bound out—should suppose there were from 250 to 300 sail now under weigh.

A gentleman of our acquaintance, and one in whom entire confidence may be placed, arrived in our city yesterday evening, from Hawkinville, which place he left on Tuesday last. He states that on the evening before he left, an express arrived at that place, from Gen Irwin, to Gen Wilcox, stating that a body of about 300 Indians had crossed the Chattahoochee near Roanoke, had killed some of the inhabitants of Stewart County, and were making their way, as it was supposed, for Florida, in the direction of Lowndes, Lee, and Baker Counties, Geo. A gentleman who came in company with our informant, took a copy of the express; but we have not been able too see him. The intelligence had been sent to Gov. Call of Florida.—Augusta Sentinel.

The Selam (N. J.) Banner of yesterday says,—"Tuesday is the fifteenth day in succession we have had rain and storm, the wind stationary at north-east, and sometimes blowing tremendous. Our streets instead of being covered with dust, are four or five inches deep in mud. The worst of this unprecedented storm is the unusual swelling of the tides, almost every bank upon our creek and river having been overflowed and broken. The principal pasture grounds in this neighborhood have been under water this week past, cornfields, and fields of winter grain have also been flooded and the grain totally destroyed. We understand too, that about twenty head of cattle perished on the meadows at Mason's point, Elsinborough. The Bridge over Beaver Creek, U P Neck we learn was swept away. Thousands of dollars will be necessary to make good the damage done in this country."

"Lafitte, or the Pirate of the Gulf," is the title of a new romance from the pen of Professor Ingraham, which is about to published by a Boston bookseller.

THE CROWN OF POLAND.—This diadem, with the claims of the white eagle, is deposited, with gorgeous jewelery and wealth piled to the very roof, in the Treasury at Moscow, and cannot be looked at by any son of freedom without giving a sigh to the fate of Stanislaus, whose dominions were so basely wrested from him, cut up, altered, partitioned, and the monarch set adrift. The very royal robes and wearing of this mild and inoffensive man are now brought to the hammer by auction. He died of a broken heart, and the hypocrite Czar shed crocodile tears at embracing his coffin and attending his funeral.

But a day of retribution must speedily arrive, on account of the plunder and all the misery, banishment, confiscation and train of evils which have been visited on that unhappy land by the devouring and insatiable Lion of the North.—Wilson's Russia and Poland.

COMMITTEE OF '76.

THE Committee of '76 will attend an adjourned meeting on Saturday evening, 25th instant, at 8 o'clock, at the Committee Room, Arcade Exchange. Punctual attendance is requested, as the Committee appointed to confer with the Counsels will then make their report.
