PENMANSHIP. Practical and Ornamental, Taught at DOLBEAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage with which their method of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instruction in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, has induced them to establish permanent academies in New York, New Orleans and Mobile, and it is their intention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of Penmanship than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them has the privilege of attending at either of the others without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city may be seen at any hour of the day. Ladies are taught a delicate and rapid epistolary style; also, various styles of ornamental writing, applied to Albums, Notes of Compliment, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious handwriting calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the incomprehensible scrawl of most men of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention. The number of Lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain till he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the most of both teacher and pupil. Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance. N. B. Dolbear's "Science of Penmanship" particularly designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting an ease and freedom not attained by any other method. Also, Dolb ar's new copy book for female seminaries intended as a supplement to the science of Penmanship, for sale here. ap 5
