SCHOOLS.

MR. MONGENOT, Professor of Dancing, recently arrived, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that he will give private lessons in this delightful art. He will teach the newest and most graceful steps, likewise waltzing.—Mr. M. not having the honor of being known, is desirous of teaching either in a school, or to a number of young persons, for the purpose of proving that by means of his new method he will enable all persons whom he at all disposed to dance to well as walk with grace and facility in thirty lessons. Those who may be desirous of learning fancy dances, as the Gavotte, Anglaise, Cossack, and all the steps belonging to these dances, together with dancing steps for minors, may acquire them by applying to him.

Price $25 per month.—These lessons per week, twelve tickets at $12. Those who are willing to honour him with their confidence, are requested to write directed to his dwelling, 203, corner of St Philip and Dauphin streets, where he will give lessons on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The mornings from 10 to 12 o'clock are devoted to the Ladies. The afternoons from 4 to 7 are devoted to the Gentlemen. n22-15d,3pw

METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 40 LESSONS.—MR. VAWNER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 30 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 156 Chartres street, or at 64 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds. n27

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J. DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Eaton Rouge Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lefay's, no. 89 Royal street, between Orleans and Bienville.

He will teach elegance of gait, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock p.m. for the ladies, and at 8 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to facilitate the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of the parents, at the academy.

GLOBES.—Leading's 18 in. mounted and colouring globes, mounted and plain. These globes are warranted to be superior to any globes manufactured, stated to Albans, Notes of Compliment, &c.

Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious handwriting, calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incidental to writing, the hieroglyphical scrawl of most men of business and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant.

The hours of attendance are so arranged as to suit the convenience of each pupil, and for the accomodation of those whose business does not admit of their taking lessons during the day, there is a night class, beginning at 7½ o'clock.

The number of lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain until he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

A liberal deduction in charge made to families and to classes formed of any part of the city.

Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residence. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

Diplomas filled and cards and complimentary notes executed in the most tasteful manner.

Dr Dolbear's Science of Penmanship, particularly designed for private learners and schools, calculated for persons of all ages, imparting both ease and freedom not attained by any other method, for sale here. n24 1m
