IN the establishment of this institution, an attempt has been made to form a College on the plan adopted in the Southern Population. We will briefly state what means we have at our disposal, and in what manner we intend to employ them.

Situated within a short distance of the South Western Metropolis, on a spot entirely exempt from all epidemic diseases, and offering the convenience for bathing in the waters of Lake Pontchartrain, we believe that the location of the College to be unsurpassed within the limits of our Union.
