DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.

[illegible] BONDELET & Co., have the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June next, they will open, at No 150 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A DYEING AND SCOURING Establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a diligent study of chemistry applied to dying, induce them to hope that no hesitation will be felt in entrusting to them the most valuable articles either for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their skill, by the care and elegance of their work, and by the finish imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tulles, velvet plain or figured, straw hats, furniture covers, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and thread gloves, silk stockings; they clean silk dresses without changing the colors. By new chemical processes they bleach muslins, jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of feathers, gentlemen's clothing without injuring them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors.—They likewise re-dye black stuffs, giving them various colors.

Terms moderate. m31—6m

THE attention of [illegible] is respectfully [illegible] to this [illegible], lately established at [illegible] of Mandeville, on Lake Pontchartrain.

MANDEVILLE is situated in the Parish of St Tammany, within 3 hours ride from New Orleans. Free from all epidemic diseases, bordered by a Lake which washes over the [illegible] breeze, and which will serve the pupils as a salutary bath; far from the bustle of a large city and its concomitant pernicious effects; provided with three elegantly constructed edifices, 500 feet in length, and surrounded by delightful gardens and orchards—it combines all the requisites for the promotion of that physical development and bodily health, without which the best talent would lie dormant, and become a burden to its possessor.—With us the physical education of young men has hitherto been too much neglected. It is the object of this Institution to combine physical and intellectual education. Such being the plan of the College, it is believed, that the State of Louisiana does not offer a more suitable spot for its location than Mandeville.

The instructing Body of the College is composed as follows—

LEWIS ELKIN, (late Principal of the Orleans High school and formerly of Jefferson College,) Principal and Professor of Mathematics

Dr. DUNCAN MACAULY, Professor of Latin, Greek and English.

J. C. POIRIER, (late from Lyons and Juilly Colleges,) Professor of Latin, Greek and French.

FELIX PERRIN, (late from Paris) Professor of French and History.

FRANCIS GONZALES, Professor of Spanish.

H. W. HEGELUND, Professor of Vocal and Instrumental Music.

ZENON GORA, Teacher of Drawing.

The Boarding Establishment is under the charge of Mrs MACAULEY.

The Clothes room is under the charge of Mrs. POIRIER.

F. COQUILLON is the Steward of the College.

A. BAUDOUIN, Esq., 305 Bourbon street, is the Agent of the College. All desired information may be obtained from him.
