First Legislature—First Session.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

THURSDAY, February 26, 1846.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—Messrs Trasimond Landry, Lieut. Governor and President of the Senate; Adams, Bell, Brashear, Briant, Caulfield, Dasnoy, Dial, Durant, Dupré, Farmer, Garcia, of St. Charles; Garcia, of Jefferson; Hunter, Kenner, Mayo, Marks, Martin, McWhorter, Nicholas, Parham, Porter, Richardson, Scott, Scranton, Soulé, Strickland, Taylor and Maunsel White.

On motion of Mr Scranton, the Reporters of the different Newspapers were permitted to take seats within the Bar of the Senate, to report the proceedings.

Mr Martin offered the following Resolution, which was read for the first time; the rules were dispensed with, it underwent its second reading and was adopted:

"Resolved, That a Committee of three members of the Senate be appointed to make an examination of the affairs and present condition of the Barrataria and Lafourche Canal Company, and that said Committee be authorized to send for persons and papers."

The President appointed Messrs Martin, Porter, and Brashear, of said Committee.

The President appointed the following members as a Committee to examine the Property Banks: Messrs Adams, Nicholas and Mayo.

The President appointed Mr Garcia of St. Charles as the additional member of the Committee of Commerce, Manufacture and Agriculture.

Agreeably to previous notice, Mr Soulé, introduced:

"An act to define the jurisdiction and determine the number of Justices of the Peace to be elected in and for the Parish and City of New Orleans."

Said bill underwent its first reading; on motion, the rules were dispensed with, it underwent its second reading, and was referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to have the same printed with the amendments made by said committee, before reporting the bill to the Senate.

Agreeably to previous notice, Mr Farmer introduced:

"An act to increase the Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, to sums of one hundred dollars, and to provide for the empanelling of Juries, before them in certain cases."

Said bill underwent its first reading; on motion, the rules were dispensed with, it underwent its second reading and was referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to have the same printed before reporting.

Mr Scott of the Committee on Education to whom had been referred:

"An act for the organization and government of the University of Louisiana," reported said bill with amendments.

Mr Ledoux, the Governor's Private Secretary delivered a message in writing from the Governor.

Agreeably to the order of the Senate, the Assistant Secretary requested the concurrence of the House at 12 o'clock, in the following bills:

"An act to define the qualifications of voters under the acts of the General Assembly of Louisiana chartering political corporations," and

"An act to define the qualifications of persons elected to office by the people under all the acts of the General Assembly of Louisiana, chartering political corporations."

On motion of Mr. Mayo, leave of absence was granted for a few days to Mr. Couvillion.

On motion of Mr Farmer the Senate took up at its second reading

"An act to abolish Police Juries in the several Parishes of this State, and to delegate the Parochial duties to Justices of the Peace, and to provide for the election of Justices of the Peace by Wards."

On motion said bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

On motion of Mr Hunter, the Senate reconsidered the said bill, and it was referred to a Special Committee of five members.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the rules, reported by the Committee appointed to prepare rules for the government of the Senate.

The following amendment, presented by Mr Kenner, to be inserted at the end of the 14th rule, was read:

"But no motion to call up a bill out of its regular order, shall be allowed, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the Senate."

On motion of Mr Kenner, said amendment was amended, by adding at its end the word "present;" and the amendment was adopted as amended.

On motion, the said rules, which were as follows, as amended, were adopted:

RULES, &c.

RELATIVE TO FUNCTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT.

1. The President having taken the chair, and a quorum being present, the journal of the preceding day shall be read, to the end that any mistake shall be corrected that shall have been made in the entries.

2. The President shall have a general direction of the chamber, and he shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair.

3. The President shall rise to put the question, but may state it sitting. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, to wit—"as many as are of opinion that (as the question may be), say Aye;" and after the affirmative voice is expressed, "as many as are of a contrary opinion say No." If the President doubt, or a count be called for, the Senate shall divide; those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

4. All acts, addresses and joint resolutions, shall be signed by the President, and all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the Senate, shall be under his hand and seal, attested by the Secretary.

5. In case of any disturbance, or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobby, the President (or Chairman of the Committee of the whole house) shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

RELATIVE TO DEBATE AND DECORUM.

6. No member shall speak to another, or otherwise interrupt the business of the Senate, during the reading of the journals or any document, or when any member is speaking.

7. Every member, when he speaks, shall address the chair, standing in his place, and when he has finished, shall sit down.

8. No member shall speak more than twice on any question on the same day, without leave of the Senate, except in committee of the whole.

9. When two or more rise at the same time, the President shall name the one to speak; but in all cases, the person first rising shall speak first.

10. When a motion shall be made, it shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the President, or any member, and delivered in at the table, and read by the Secretary, before the same shall be debated.

11. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received, but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or to amend, to divide the question; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order except when a member is speaking, and be decided without debate; but a motion to adjourn to a day beyond the following day, shall not be in order, until the previous question shall have been decided, that when the Senate shall adjourn, it shall be adjourned to the future day named.

12. When a member shall be called to order, he shall sit down, until the President shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and every question of order shall be decided by the President without debate; but if there be a doubt in his mind, he may call for the sense of the Senate; but any member may appeal from the decision of the chair.

13. If a member be called to order for words spoken, the exceptionable words shall be immediately taken down in writing, by the Secretary, that the President may be enabled to judge of the matter.

ORDER OF THE BUSINESS OF THE DAY.

14. All questions relative to the priority of business to be acted upon, shall be decided without debate; but no motion to call up a bill out of its regular order, shall be allowed, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the Senate present.

15. After the reading of the journal, the President shall call for reports of committees, motions and bills or resolutions introduced according to previous notice, before entering upon the order of the day.

16. The unfinished business in which the Senate was engaged at the last preceding adjournment, shall have the preference in the order of the day; and no motion, or any other business, shall be received, without special leave of the Senate, until the former is disposed of.

17. In the order of the day, business shall have precedence as follows:

1st. The first reading of Bills and Resolutions from the other House,
2d. Bills, etc., fixed for that particular day.
3d. Bills, etc., at their third reading, and
Lastly, Bills, etc., at their second reading.

AMENDMENT.

18. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment, as a substitute for the motion or proposition under date.

QUESTION—VOTE—AYES AND NOES—BALLOT.

19. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

20. If the question in debate contain several points, any member may have the same divided; but a motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

21. Every member who shall be in the House when a question is put, in public or private sittings, shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, excuse him.

22. When a motion is made and put to vote, it shall be considered as lost when it fails to get the votes of a majority of the members present.

23. When the yeas and nays shall be called for by one of the members present, and seconded by another, each member called upon shall declare openly and without debate, his assent or dissent to the question. In taking the yeas and nays, and upon a call of the Senate, the names of the members shall be taken alphabetically.

24. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is immediately interested, or in any case where he was not present when the question was put. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

25. In filling up blanks the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

26. All elections shall be decided by a majority of the members present except of committee.

27. All questions on amendments, or extending to the merits, being short of the final question, shall be decided by a majority of the members present, although a greater number be required for the decision of the final question.

RECONSIDERATION.

28. When the question has been once made and decided in the affirmative, or negative, it shall be in order for any member of the majority to move for the reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order, unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken, or within the next day.

MESSAGES.

29. Messages shall be carried to the House of Representatives by the Secretary, who shall previously endorse the determination of the Senate thereon.

30. Messages sent from the House of Representatives by their Clerk, shall be received at the table by the Secretary, and by him shall be delivered to the President of the Senate.

31. Messages are introduced in any state of business, except while a question is putting, while the yeas and nays are calling.

COMMITTEES—STANDING COMMITTEES.

32. All Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise directed by the Senate; in which case a plurality of votes shall make a choice; but when any subject or matter shall have been referred to a Select Committee, any subject or other matter of a similar nature, may on motion, be referred to the same Committee.

[illegible] shall be [illegible]

1. A Committee on Elections.
2. A Committee on Claims.
3. A Committee on Unfinished Business.
4. A Committee on Enrolled Bills.
5. A Committee for Auditing and supervising the expenses of the Senate.
6. A Committee on Public Education.
7. A Committee on Internal Improvements.
8. A Committee on the Judiciary.
9. A Committee of Commerce, Agriculture and Manufactures.
10. A Committee on Federal Relations.
11. A Committee to visit the Penitentiary.
12. A Committee on Militia.
13. A Committee on Finance.

34. No Committee shall sit during the sitting of the Senate without special leave.

35. It shall be in order for the Committee on Enrolled Bills to report at any time.

BILLS—FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD READINGS. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

36. One day's notice, at least, shall be given of an intended motion for leave to bring in a bill, unless two thirds of the Senate direct otherwise.

37. Every bill shall receive three readings previous to being passed, and the President shall give notice at each, whether it be the first, second or third; which readings shall be on three different days, unless four-fifths of the Senate shall direct otherwise; and all resolutions to which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested, shall be treated in all respects, in the introduction and form of proceedings on them in the Senate, in a similar manner with bills, and all other resolutions and reports of committees shall lie on the table one day.

38. The first reading of a bill shall be for information, and if opposition be made to it, the question shall be, "shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill shall go to its second reading without a question.

39. No bill shall be committed or amended until it shall have been twice read.

40. All bills, at their second reading, may be discussed in Committee of the Whole, on motion to that effect; and in such case the President may preside over the Senate, or call any member to the chair.

41. The final question upon the second reading of every bill or resolution originating in the Senate, and requiring three readings previous to its being passed, shall be, "whether it shall be engrossed and read a third time?"

42. No amendment shall be received for discussion at the third reading of any bill or resolution, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members present; but it shall at all times be in order, before the final passage of any such bill or resolution, to move its commitment, and should such commitment take place, and any amendment be reported by the committee, the said bill or resolution shall be again read a second time, and considered as in Committee of the Whole, and then the aforesaid question shall be again put.

MEMORIAL OR PETITION.

43. Before any petition or memorial addressed to the Senate shall be received and read at the table, whilst the same shall be introduced by the President or a member, a brief statement of the contents of the petition or memorial shall verbally be made by the introducer. When the reading of a paper is called for and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by the Senate, and without debate.

CLOSED DOORS—EXECUTIVE BUSINESS.

44. On motion made to shut the doors of the Senate on the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of any member, require secrecy, the President shall direct the gallery or lobby to be cleared; and during the discussion of such motion, the doors shall remain shut.

45. All confidential communications made by the Executive of the State to the Senate, shall be, by the members thereof, kept inviolably secret until the Senate take off the injunction of secrecy by resolution.

46. All information or remarks, touching or concerning the character or qualifications of any person nominated to the Senate for office shall be kept secret.

47. When nominations shall be made by the Executive of the State to the Senate, a future day shall be assigned for taking them into consideration, unless two-thirds of the Senate shall direct otherwise.

48. The proceedings of the Senate, when they act in their executive capacity, shall be kept in separate and distinct books.

49. In voting upon a nomination from the Governor for office, or upon a recommendation for a reprieve or pardon, or a commutation of punishment, or for remission of fine or forfeiture, a majority of votes shall be necessary for a decision; and no motion shall be received for reconsideration of any decision of the Senate in its executive capacity.

SECRETARY—CLERKS—JOURNALS.

50. The proceedings of the Senate, when not acting in Committee of the Whole, shall be entered on the journal as concisely as possible, care being taken to detail a true and accurate account of the proceedings.

51. Every vote of the Senate shall be entered on the journal, with a concise statement of the question, and a brief statement of the contents of each petition, memorial of paper presented to the Senate, shall be also inserted on the journal.

52. All questions of order shall be noted by the Secretary, with the decision, and put together at the end of the journal of every session.

53. In case any Clerk, Sergeant-at-arms, or door-keeper of the Senate fail to perform his duty, the Secretary thereof shall make a report without delay.

54. The Secretary shall read the journal daily, from the sheet on which he takes his minutes, and after being so read and corrected, and not before, the said minutes shall be examined by the Secretary of the Senate, and if necessary, corrected and amended under the sanction of the Senate, and copies, in both languages, furnished to the printer, authenticated by the signature of the Secretary, by 10 o'clock of the day following that on which it shall have been read.

55. The Secretary shall consider himself responsible to the Senate for the accuracy of the journal, in both languages, and for the fidelity and prompt execution of all translations ordered; and the Clerks shall consider themselves subordinate to him, and under his control and direction. And it shall be their duty to attend in the Clerk's room from 9 o'clock in the morning to the hour of adjournment, and from 4 o'clock, P. M., till further attendance be dispensed with by the Secretary; who shall lay before the President the names of the Clerks, with a note opposite to each, indicating that he was present or absent, (as the case may have been) on the day preceeding.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS—DOOR-KEEPER.

56. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be appointed to hold his office during the pleasure of the Senate, whose duty it shall be to attend the Senate during its sittings to execute the commands of the Senate from time to time, together with all such process, issued by the authority thereof, as shall be directed to him by the President.

57. A door-keeper shall be appointed, to hold his office during the pleasure of the Senate; whose duty it shall be to keep the door of the lobby, to announce messages, to have charge of the Senate Chamber, and to perform such other duties as the members may require.

JEFFERSON'S MANUAL.—AMENDMENT OF RULES.

58. On any question of order or parliamentary practice when those rules are silent or inexplicit, the Manual of Mr. Jefferson shall be considered as authority.

59. No standing rule or order of the Senate shall be rescinded or changed, without one day's notice being given of the motion thereof; nor shall any rule be suspended, except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE DAY.

The Senate took up the motion made by Mr Briant, to reconsider the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the President of the Senate be and he is hereby instructed to invite alternately the Divines of the different denominations, to open the daily sessions of the Senate by prayer."

Mr Richardson called for the yeas and nays on the motion for reconsideration:

Messrs Adams, Brashear, Briant, Dial, Durant, Dupré, Garcia of Jefferson; Garcia of St. Charles, Marks, Martin, McWhorter, Nicholas, Parham, Scott, Scranton, Soulé and Taylor, voted for reconsideration—17 ayes; and, Messrs Bell, Caulfield, Farmer, Hunter, Kenner, Mayo, Porter, Richardson, Strickland and Maunsel White, voted against the reconsideration—10 nays.

The said resolution was consequently reconsidered.

Mr Dupré moved that the said resolution lie indefinitely on the table.

Mr Garcia of Jefferson, called for the yeas and nays on Mr Dupré's motion:

Messrs Adams, Brashear, Dial, Durant, Dupré, Garcia of St. Charles; Garcia of Jefferson; Martin, McWhorter, Nicholas, Parham, Soulé and Taylor, voted in favor of the motion—13 ayes; and,

Messrs Bell, Briant, Caulfield, Farmer, Hunter, [illegible] Mayo, Marks, Porter, Richardson, Scott, Strickland and Maunsel White, voted [illegible]—14 nays.

[illegible] the Senate reject the said [illegible] called for the yeas [illegible]

[illegible] Durant, Dupré, [illegible] Jefferson; Marks, [illegible] Scott, Scranton [illegible] rejection—16

[illegible] Kenner, [illegible] White, [illegible]

Item 12th. That in case the State Printer elected, should refuse to perform the work above designated at the prices named, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer forthwith to contract, at the said rates, with some other competent person, and failing in that, the State Treasurer shall contract on such terms as in his judgment will be most compatible with the public interests.

Mr Adams, on behalf of the minority of said Committee, reported the following Resolution:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives that the State Treasurer shall cause to be advertised in —— daily newspapers published in this City for three successive days, for sealed proposals for the printing in English and French of all the printing that may be required by the present Legislature.

"Be it further resolved, That on the day next following the publication as aforesaid, the Treasurer shall, at the hour of 12 o'clock, M, proceed to open the proposals offered, and shall select as State Printer that person offering to do the requisite printing on the most advantageous terms;—provided that the Treasurer shall exact good and sufficient security from the person so chosen for the faithful and speedy performance of his duties, as State Printer."

On motion, the Senate sat with closed doors, on Executive business.

The doors being opened, on motion, the Senate adjourned till to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M.

Galvanic Rings and Magnetic Fluid.

THIS remarkable discovery which has attracted so much attention in Europe and recently in the Northern States, is now introduced for the first time to the citizens of New Orleans. It comprises an entirely safe and simple application of the Mysterious Power of Galvanism as a remedial agent. The GALVANIC RINGS in connection with the MAGNETIC FLUID have been used with the most perfect success in all cases of RHEUMATISM, acute or chronic, applying to the head face or limbs: Gout, Tic Doloreux, Toothache, Bronchitis, Vertigo, Nervous or Sick Headache, Indigestion, Paralysis, Palsy, Epilepsy, Fits, Cramp, Palpitation of the Heart, Apoplexy, Stiffness of Joints, Spinal Complaints, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Nervous Tremors, Dizziness of the Head, Pains in the Chest and Side, General Debility, Deficiency of Nervous and Physical Energy, and all Nervous Disorders. In cases of Dyspepsia which is simply a nervous derangement of the digestive organs, they have been found equally successful. The Rings are of different prices, being made of all sizes, and of various ornamental patterns, and can be worn by the most delicate female without the slightest inconvenience.

The Galvanic Belts, Bands, Bracelets,

Are modifications of the invention and are recommended in more chronic cases of disease, where the Rings do not possess sufficient intensity or power. They are adapted to the waist, arms, wrists, ancles, chest, or any part of the body with perfect ease. Any Galvanic power that is required may thus be obtained, and no complaint which the mysterious agent of Galvanism can effect, will fail to be permanently relieved.

Christie's Magnetic Fluid

Is used in connection with the Rings and their modifications. This composition has been pronounced by the French Chemists, to be one of the most valuable discoveries of modern science. It is believed to possess the remarkable power of rendering the nerves sensitive to Galvanic action, by this means causing a concentration of the influence at the seat of disease, and thus giving rapid and permanent relief.

Christie's Galvanic Strengthening Plaster

These articles form an important addition to the Galvanic Rings, acting upon the same principle, but having the advantage of more local application. As an effectual means for Strengthening the system when debilitated by disease or other causes, as a certain aid in constitutional weakness as a preventive for colds, and in all affections of the chest generally the GALVANIC STRENGTHENING PLASTER will be found of great and permanent advantage.

Numerous certificates and testimonials from many distinguished physicians and others of the North have been received by the Proprietor. These are all from persons of the highest respectability and may be seen on application to the Agent.

The public are respectfully warned against Fictitious Imitations of these articles. Dr. CHRISTIE has but one authorized Agent in each city of the Union. GUION & Co., corner of St Charles and Canal streets, are the sole Agents for New Orleans, of whom alone the genuine articles can be obtained. f26—1m

The soothing influence of this preparation on the blood and its curative properties [illegible] the harmless the virus of disease [illegible] and [illegible] tonic qualities strengthen the stomach and the [illegible] curative power with which disease is arrested [illegible] may seem [illegible].

To those afflicted with postulous or other eruptions, scrofulous ulcers, superficial or deep seated sores, inflammatory or chronic rheumatism, general prostration, hepatic diseases, &c. &c. it will be found to produce most beneficial, and to speak, re vitalizing effect.

Still further proof of the value and efficacy of this medicine. Another link added to the chain of its testimony.

WEST POULTNEY, Vt. Dec. 4th 1845.

Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS—Dear Sirs—About the middle of January, 1842, I was attacked with a disease which my Physician called Rheumatism, and I used such remedies as were prescribed, and in about three weeks it left, but nearly the same time the next year it appeared again in the same place, the right hip joint, from which it increased, moving on from limb to limb and joint to joint until it had completely taken possession of my whole system. I tried every remedy prescribed by various Physicians, but was doomed year after year to see my disease completely baffle the combined skill of the Medical Profession. I continued thus until September 1843, when I took a sudden and severe cold, and immediately my disease again was increased fury throughout my whole system—My body was racked with convulsions and twisted with cramp until every joint was dislocated, and every limb painfully distorted. My limbs and body were drawn together, nearly into a sitting posture, in which every joint, hand or foot or any of my limbs.

I was confined in this condition about one year from the above date to a common bed, next in a hydrostatic bed for one year, from which I was taken in February 1841, and placed in a large easy chair, made so as to conform to the angle of my stiff body and limbs. I had not been long in this chair before my feet began to swell and continued to increase until the skin literally burst at every pore, discharging such a quantity of fluid that large folds of cloths placed under and around them would be completely drenched in a few hours. Although my feet were swelled so tender that I could scarcely endure the weight of cloth upon them, yet at times they would burn and itch so intolerably that my nurse would be obliged to take a rough cloth and rub them until it was sometimes saturated with blood. All the nails on my fingers and toes died and came off. I had a distressing pain in my left side, a distracting headache almost continually, and besides, my bowels were so torpid that they did not move unless by the aid of Pills, oftener than once in several days. This, Sir, is but a faint description of my actual state when your Sarsaparilla, like an Angel of Mercy, found me and administered to my relief. While removing the wrapper from the first bottle, my wife said, my dear husband, you must not allow yourself even to hope for relief, for if you do, it will only add another to your already many grievous disappointments. I very sensibly felt the effects of the first dose, and when I had taken one half of the first bottle the discharge from my feet entirely stopped, and the swelling began to abate, and before I had finished taking the second, the burning and itching was gone, the loathsome stench disappeared, the pain in my head, side and back disappeared, while my bowels for the first time in four years moved naturally and have continued to do so since, and my health is rapidly improving.
