TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the "Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love."

Respected and honored sir.—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery, and have assembled for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and tendering you the honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is, in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostration of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness, and therefore must prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that there is nothing in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, that it is one of the noblest medicinal discoveries of any age.

With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

JOSSELIN BOSSUIT,
SIGISMOND DE LA MARTINE,
ADRIEN DECRAND,
OCTAVE NICOLS,
JEAN BLANC,
ROBERT STEVENSON
LOUIS OUBEAU,
PIERRE BUFFON

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE," or, in English "the Lucina cordial," is a general invigorator of the system frame! In all the various cases of languor, lassitude, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy, as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and liveliness to the mind, to health and vigor to the body. But the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based is the facility and certainty with which it restores the virile powers, when they have been destroyed by disease, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of those functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mercurial or deleterious nature, among the many ingredients which compose it; but is, at the same time, so simple, yet so efficacious, that it is as effectual in the prostration of energies of a giant, as infant may use it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The usages of society are unfortunately such, that notwithstanding the benefits which could be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of the inestimable qualities of the Lucina cordial, but the testimonials which have been received as vouchers of the blessings it has conferred on numbers of despairing individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if any such thing at all, as natural barrenness, or natural impotency, but that it is generally owing to either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the fluor albus, obstruction, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the aged.

For sale wholesale or retail, at 65 Polydras street. Price $4 per bottle. m14-6m

HUMAN HAIR.—It is certainly true, although not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion, and that there not only exist more roots in the skin of every individual than have growing upon them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed; and unless by accident or disease there should be complete derangement, or destruction of the parts which nourish and sustain them, we maintain that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen from the surface, in consequence of age, or from the effects of fever, &c. &c. &c. ☞ Extract from M. Fresh Reon's treatise accompanying Heals' hair restorative

HYDROCONIONE, or apparatus for shower and vapor baths, for sale by the subscriber.

Many years since, at the request of many of the most distinguished physicians of New Orleans, Mr. Gicquel had forged an establishment for shower and vapor baths, by means of an apparatus already known in Europe, which experience has taught him to modify, the employment of which is rendered so easy, that the most stupid servant may put into operation, by means of which he has obtained the most favorable results, and has restored invalids to unexpected health who had been attacked with gout, rheumatism of various kinds, scrofulas and scorbutic affections, &c. &c. With this apparatus medicated shower and vapor baths may be substituted for the ordinary baths with an advantage as derived from the latter. It is consequently indispensably necessary for large families, or in extensive establishments, such as boarding houses, hospitals, &c. Mr. Gicquel being about to depart for France, is willing to dispose of this apparatus, made under his orders at Paris. He will give every information respecting the manner of putting it into operation, and will furnish certificates from the principal physicians in Europe, together with reports from various scientific bodies, appointed to give their opinions respecting this mode of bathing, so generally practised in France, Germany, Italy, &c.

Mr. Gicquel also offers for sale, his circulating library, to which he has added various works of jurisprudence. GICQUEL,
