5. This Company or Limited Partnership, shall exist and continue for and during the term of five years, commencing on the 5th of April, 1848, and ending on the fourth of April, 1853.

6. The affairs of said Company shall be directed by a Manager, and a Board of Five Directors, to be composed of the Manager and four of the Stockholders.

7. Whereas it is understood that by the execution of these presents, Robert Murphy, of the City of New Orleans, doth transfer unto said "Independent Tow Boat Company," all his right and interest in and to a certain contract made and executed on the [illegible] day April, 1848, with Joseph Montgomery and Samuel [illegible], the which contract is deposited in my Notarial Records. Being for the exclusive privilege of using "Montgomery's Patent [illegible]" for the [illegible] the upper line of the City of Lafayette, and extending one hundred miles to sea, and in consideration thereof, the said Robert Murphy is by this act, appointed sole Manager of said "Independent Tow Boat Company," during the existence of Partnership of said Company. He further shall be [illegible] to manage all the business and affairs of said Company. He shall keep a Commodious Office for that purpose, and appoint a Secretary under him, to whom the salaries of all Agents, Masters, and others so may employ in the transaction of the business of the Company, as well as the rent, hire and expenses of said Office, shall be at the sole charge and cost of the said Robert Murphy; for which and for his services as Manager of the Company, he shall be entitled to, and receive as full compensation, ten per cent from the gross earnings of the Boats owned by the Company. The said Manager can only be removed for causes (as hereinafter expressed,) and by a vote of two thirds of the Stockholders.

8. It shall be the duty of the Manager to keep bound books, a correct record of all the receipts, transactions, accounts, business and affairs of the said Company; as well as a full account of the receipts and disbursements thereof; he shall on the 6th of December, 1848, exhibit to the Stockholders an exact [illegible] account of the said company; and on the first Monday of April [illegible] of July, the last Monday in October, and the first Monday in December of each and every year thereafter, he shall exhibit a like statement of the business of the Company, and exhibit the net profits of the [illegible] of any there be, which shall be divided among the Stockholders, pro rata, and for [illegible] of representatives of the Stockholders, to deposit in the [illegible] to pay the dividends a receipt shall be given in a book, to be kept for that purpose.

9. The following persons are hereby named as Directors of the Company, to act as such until the first of January, 1850, viz: Robert McDowell, John Geddes, John Hughes and John O. Woodruff.

10. On the last Monday in December, 1849, and at a correspondent time in each and every year thereafter, a meeting will be called by the Manager, for the election of [illegible] shall be an election of four Directors to serve for the year ensuing, commencing on the first day of January in each year.—Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he may own [illegible] the Company. It shall be the duty of the said Directors to meet at the office of the Manager at such times as he may hereafter be required by the Company. They shall take cognizance of the affairs of the Company; they shall decide on the purchase of all boats, and the changes in the location of the same of the Company; they shall declare the amounts of the Manager, and thereupon make the proper decisions and declare dividends of profits upon the capital stock.

11. In case of death, inability, resignation or removal for causes of the present Manager, a meeting of the Stockholders shall be called and a majority of three-quarters shall elect his successor. Ten days notice of such meeting shall be given in two newspapers published in the City of New Orleans. At such meeting the Stockholders shall determine his duties, and powers, and the time for which he shall be appointed. Should it become necessary, before a successor can be appointed by the Stockholders, a Manager pro-tempore may be appointed by the Board.

12. The secretary mentioned in the 7th article of this act shall be appointed in the manner following: The Manager may nominate three persons, one of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The secretary shall act as Treasurer of the Company, and shall collect and receive all monies on its account, and immediately deposit the same in such Bank as the Directors may designate thence, to be drawn only on the Checks of the Secretary countersigned by the Manager and for the purposes of said Company. He shall also make all the disbursements of said Company under the approval of the Manager. The Secretary shall furnish securities for the faithful performance of his duties, in two securities to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors in the sum of not exceeding Ten thousand Dollars, as may be designated by the Board.

13. In case of the death or resignation of any of the Directors, the Board shall elect a successor from the Stockholders for the unexpired term of office, for which the deceased shall have been elected.

14. The "Manager" during his continuance in office shall not sell, transfer, or pledge in any manner, any of the stock by him owned at the time of his Appointment, without permission of the Board of Directors.

15. The "causes" of removal of the said Manager, Robert Murphy, as mentioned in the 7th section hereof, shall be deemed to be, only proven dishonesty in the management of the affairs of the Company, or proven mental or physical incapacity to conduct the same; but any Manager against whom a charge may be made by a Director or Stockholder, involving any one of said causes of removal, may be "suspended" from his official duties by the Directors, during the investigation of the charges; which investigation shall be immediate, and made and decided within sixty days; and said "suspension" shall cease, whenever such charge made, shall prove to be unfounded. And in case any Manager be suspended on frivolous charges or from malicious motives, such persons making the charges, and the Director causing the such suspension may be made accountable therefor in damages to such Manager in any court of Law.

16. None of the Stockholders, nor any of their successors as such, shall be responsible for any loss, damage, or liability to any person beyond the amount of the capital stock by them or any of them respectively held.

17. Any Stockholder not paying up his instalments within thirty days after the same shall have been approved, shall be deemed to have forfeited his Stock to the Company, together with all previous payments made thereon.

18. The Stockholders composing the Company, shall have the right to purchase company Slaves as they may deem proper, for the safety and convenience of the Boats and the general business, and to sell or exchange the same, and replace them by others at their option.

19. When the Company shall have arrived at the period at which by this Act, said Partnership will expire, all its affairs and concerns shall be wound up and liquidated to the best advantage of the Company, (as they may deem discreet) by three Stockholders for that purpose elected as Commissioners at a meeting of the Stockholders specially called; and a rate of compensation for their services and the time within which they shall wind up the affairs of the Company, may be defined and declared.

20. Such Commissioners so elected shall have power to collect, sue for, or compound and compromise all debts to the Company due; and sell and dispose of for cash, at public auction or otherwise, all the boats, slaves, property, chattels and effects of the Company. After which, all monies over and above the liabilities of the Company, when the same are settled, shall be apportioned pro rata upon the shares owned by the Stockholders.

Thus done and passed at my office in the city of New Orleans, in the presence of William Shannon and Theophile Commagere, competent witnesses, who, hereunto as such, sign their names together with all the said parties, and me, the Notary—the day and year first above mentioned.

To the Public.

AS some of the Bakers of this city have taken offence at our manufactured bread, concerning the weighing of their Bread, and have thought proper to circulate a report that we had given up the Baking Business, and by such contemptible means succeeded in obtaining many of our Customers, we beg to request our friends not to be deceived by such statements; it is true, they have succeeded in getting some of our Bread Drivers from us, which will give us some temporary inconvenience until our new Carriers become acquainted with their routes: but if they expect to put us down by this kind of opposition, they mistake an American public. We have too much confidence in the community, to suppose they can succeed; we ask our friends for support, and we are sure it will be granted. We are pursuing a fair and honorable competition, and assure the community it is as much to their interest that we should succeed, as it is for our own.
