T. W. FIELDS' IMPROVED PATENT FRICTION ROLLER HOISTING WHEEL MANUFACTORY, 86 Walker street, New-York.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs the merchants and public in general of New-Orleans, that he has now made such arrangements as will enable them to obtain the above wheel at a reduced price from the old "patent," and which for power and durability far surpasses it.

This wheel has been so much improved from the old "patent," that one man can elevate or let down from 90 to 25 cwt. with ease. The merchants of New York and other Atlantic cities have highly recommended it.

Orders for the above wheel will be received at his manufactory in New-York, and forwarded immediately to any place in the Union.

Terms: Cash on delivery, or approved city acceptances at ninety days. j3

HYDROCONIONE, or apparatus for shower and vapor baths, for sale by the subscriber.

Many years since, at the request of many of the most distinguished physicians of New Orleans, Mr Gicquel had fitted an establishment for shower and vapor baths, by means of an apparatus already known in Europe, which experience has taught him to modify, the employment of which is rendered so easy, that the most stupid servant may put into operation, by means of which he has obtained the most favorable results, and has restored invalids to unexpected health who had been attacked with gout, rheumatism of venous kinds, scrofulas and scorbutic affections, tetters, &c. With this apparatus medicated shower and vapor baths may be substituted for the ordinary baths with an advantage as derived from the latter. It is consequently indispensably necessary for large families, or in extensive establishments, such as boarding houses, hospitals, &c. Mr. Gicquel being about to depart for France, is willing to dispose of the apparatus, [illegible] Paris. He will give every information respecting [illegible] putting it into [illegible] from the principal [illegible] wish reports from practitioners in France, Germany, Italy, &c.

TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the 'Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love'

"Respected and honored sir:—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery; and have assembled for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and tendering you the honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is, in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostration of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness; and therefore must prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that there is nothing in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, that it is one of the noblest medicinal discoveries of any age.

"With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

JOSSELIN BOSSUIT,
SIGISMOND DE LA MARTINE,
ADRIEN DECRAND,
OCTAVE NICOLS,
JEAN BLANC,
ROBERT STEVENSON
LOUIS CUISEAU,
PIERRE BUFFON."

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE," or, in English, "the Lucina cordial," is a general invigorator of the human frame! In all the various cases of languor, lassitude, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy; as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and devotion to the mind, as health and vigor to the body. But the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based, is the facility and certainty with which it restores the virile powers, when they have been destroyed by diseases, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of those functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mercurial or deleterious nature, among the many ingredients which compose it; but is, at the same time, so simple, yet so efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of a giant, an infant may use it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The usages of society are unfortunately such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which have been received as vouchers of the blessings it has conferred on numbers of despairing individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if any such thing at all, as natural barrenness, or as natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the fleur albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropical affections of the aged.

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York; we mean, an imitation of that most deservedly popular medicine known "Rowand's These Africas," for fever and ague.

We had but just put down an imitation called "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another, still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the store of "Sisson & Brother," No. 105 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac simile of the proprietor has been counterfeited—his copy rights infringed upon—his certificates copied—and, in fact, imitated in such a manner, that from its outward appearance it can scarcely be detected. We would also say, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States court, for damages for this "piracy," upon our rights, and request dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the article, unless its source can be directly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, whom he has endeavored to select, as men enjoying the utmost respect and confidence of the communities in which they reside, and who, we trust, would think so offer any other than the genuine original "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for the paltry gain of a few dollars, thereby endangering the lives of their fellow citizens.

JOSEPH T. POWAND, Proprietor
Sole Successor to doctor John R. Rowand, No. 105 Water street, Philadelphia.
