NOTICE.

MR. NORMANDIN, having been informed by several persons, that it was reported that it was not the same individual of the Palais Royal, who has established himself in this city; lies the honor to inform the public that he is the identical person whose house is known under the firm of FRERES NORMANDIN, and who has obtained the premium at every exhibition of French industry. His object in association with Mr. BARRAUD, advantageously known for his skill in head dressing, is to form an establishment which may have nothing to desire to those who will patronise it, and the opening of which is only delayed on account of the great improvements they have been obliged to make in the store at the corner of Royal and Maine streets, to be styled, Bazar Parisien.

Their connection with his house in Paris and their correspondence with the most reputed journals of fashion, will enable them to offer to the ladies and gentlemen, what will appear at the latest fashions.

They will in short neglect nothing to render the establishment at the corner of Royal and Dumaine superequal to that of the Palais Royal of Paris.

A subsequent notice will make known the day it will be opened.
