CORNS! CORNS
DR. MURPHY, Chiropodist,
BEGS to inform the public of New Orleans and vicinity that, after a number of years' practice, (and during the last five years has been patronised by some of the most respectable families of the city) he is now prepared to remove all kinds of corns, hard, soft, or ulcerated bunions of long standing, warts, callosities, or nails growing into the flesh, without the least pain or blood, by a vegetable composition in HIS POSSESSION ONLY. Boots or shoes are immediately worn with the greatest ease after the corn has been removed. The Doctor has now three hundred and odd subscribers' names on his books of our most respectable citizens, and also several certificates from persons who have been cured by him, and had been operated on by some other corn doctors now residing in the city, who failed to give the least relief. The Doctor intends to remain here during the summer months, and will be most happy to attend to parties by the year, on the most liberal terms. Ladies wishing to have their corns removed will be attended at their residences by leaving their address at No. 3 St. Charles street, room 25, up stairs.

REMOVAL.
CHARLES LEVY,
SURGEON PEDICURE,
Has Removed from No. 195 Royal street, to No. 152 Royal street, between Toulouse and St. Louis streets.
ERADICATES CORNS and BUNIONS, and NAILS which have entered the flesh without the least pain, in ten minutes, after which the patient may wear his shoes. Price, $1 per corn, or $10 a year, by subscription. According to the terms of subscription, the feet are examined monthly, from 1 to 5 P. M., at the residence of Mr. Levy. He will call on ladies. I was informed that there are in New Orleans Pedicures who pretend to cure Corns; I have been residing in the city for the last ten years, and have never met with one who could cure them radically, except the Corns of persons walking barefooted. I have now upwards of 200 subscribers. My operations have given general satisfaction, and I hope still to enjoy public confidence. CHARLES LEVY.

EDUCATION.

[illegible] MADAME PARENT, Corner of [illegible] streets.
THIS Institution [illegible] one of the best locations in the city [illegible] The building is commodious, [illegible] well ventilated, and are [illegible] with desirable [illegible]
There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabinets; also spacious galleries all through the house; a splendid garden commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the Lake.
The best advantages are offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.
Madame Parent is always present with her pupils; she assisted during the hours of class, and supervises the classical divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the institution.
Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Dancing, and Embroidery, &c. The Musical department (including vocal and instrumental) is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.
It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special attention that is paid to the English, it being Madame Parent's native language. The best guarantee that she can give to the public is that the French young ladies who have been educated by her speak it as fluently as their mother tongue.
For terms, apply at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.
YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different Districts, will be conveyed gratis to and from the institution. s29

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MADAM CHARPAUX,
At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.
THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.
Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.
Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city, and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.
Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.
The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.
Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical schools in Paris, and ex-artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performances, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the execution of the regular keys and notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.
In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.
Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.
During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 3. Re-open at 4½ and close at 5 o'clock, P. M.
