COMMERCIAL.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

REMARKS.

[illegible] this if any change in business can be discovered in our last remarks, there may be a slight improvement, but so small as to be scarcely perceptible, engaged in all branches of business continue to complain of the dull time, and that will no doubt be [illegible] until confidence becomes restored; that how[illegible] far from being the case at present, every week is [illegible] about to whom they sell, for in many instances [illegible] or cash, they have to wait some time for [illegible] before it can be be collected.

[illegible] coffee as every according to the last state[illegible] the banks, it appears they had discounted in [illegible] to the amount of $1,616,266, this would be [illegible] for the 16 Banks of about $40,000 per week. [illegible] way it has been done the effect do not [illegible] to be felt by the community; their accommodation [illegible] to extend only to business paper, and as [illegible] is so much imported that there can be but little [illegible], and they appear to be very particular [illegible] do that

[illegible] remains the same as last week, dollars 6 a 7[illegible] there is however but a limited demand, more [illegible] received from Tampico, and Matamoras this [illegible] $287,000 in specie, and Bahia. The [illegible] in Mobile mostly in request to about 17 per [illegible] Mississippi continued to 30 to 35 Kentucky [illegible] and Illinois remain at par, but in selling [illegible] in small sums at a small premium, say 1 to 1[illegible] to the amount wanted.

[illegible] advices have been received this week [illegible] to the 1st March and from Havre to [illegible]

[illegible] appeared to be no material change in the [illegible] from marks but prices appear to have a [illegible] tendency. At Havre there appears to have [illegible] since the last accounts on American [illegible] to 3 cents per lb at which the sales appear [illegible] the great facility in the receipt of cotton [illegible] lower quantities, and minimum as they go [illegible]

[illegible] was fair continues city, and was quite warm [illegible] yesterday night, when a sudden change took [illegible] and continued very cool the whole yesterday, [illegible] night, we have now had a warm and Rain for [illegible] weeks, and the last was of but short duration.

[illegible]TON—The transactions in this article have been to [illegible] extent this week as last and sales up to from [illegible] 500 bales at about the range of our quotations, [illegible] the same as last week. We continue to have [illegible] to buy this article, at the present time we are [illegible] sales of the others actual price, one or two [illegible] ceding 400 bales, the want of shipping is [illegible] some of the prices, we note also that such a [illegible] a very few purchasers willing to pay the [illegible] rates of freight, there is but Vessels to [illegible]

[illegible] are 461,531 bales against 412,333 to the [illegible] last season, making an excess of 49,218 [illegible] and thus.

	BALES
British Ports	59,905

Total	4,816
	35 8 [illegible]
Foreign Ports	5[illegible]
Stock	4,75[illegible]
	19,75[illegible]
Total	46,531

[illegible] tariff receipts, upon the market [illegible] for the week ending this date, they stand as follows

	BALES
Boston and other Eastern	15,[illegible]
New York and other Ports	30,922
	46,531

[illegible] of the [illegible] was 396,[illegible] [illegible] 461,531, leaving an excess [illegible] 65,249 of the crop of the Exports of cotton [illegible] 15,060 bales are consumed by the [illegible] Cotton Planters [illegible] early.

The employment in the cotton [illegible] the opening of selling, and [illegible] the extreme. [illegible] quite [illegible] [illegible] will bring out the great quantities [illegible] shipping over the [illegible] the [illegible] the close of selling, at the 24th [illegible] are 7774 bales against 1763 to the same [illegible]

	HHDS.
British Ports	16,6[illegible]
Foreign Ports	1,055
	17,[illegible]

[illegible] very little shipping owing to the high rates [illegible] as soon as they to reduced, it will [illegible] freely. The crop is however thought not [illegible] 5,000 hhds.

[illegible] the demand throughout the week has [illegible] and sales consequently to the place [illegible] without change, we quote good fair [illegible] 8 8 cts [illegible] 8, common 5 a 5½, [illegible] crops, the stock on the Levee is unusually [illegible]

[illegible]SSELS—There has been very little enquiry for [illegible] and prices have declined by 26a27 cents [illegible]

[illegible]—We do not alter our quotations from last [illegible] 6 a 7½ dollars per ton, but we do some sales [illegible] at less than $6

[illegible] remains the same 50 a 55 cents per [illegible] we do some sales from the Levee at [illegible]

[illegible]IONS—Beef continues scarce and readily [illegible] Pork is in over abundance and [illegible] Bacon is plentiful, we note our quotations [illegible] Butter Western is plentiful, and [illegible] Lard is in supply

[illegible]KEY—Barrels are in demand from Cuba [illegible] advances, for rectified to 30 cents [illegible] a little on the market, in selling [illegible] over rectified.

[illegible]LE—There is an increased demand the week [illegible] change.

[illegible]—No change in price for Liverpool [illegible] was a sale this week of a cargo of Turks [illegible] at 29 cts per bushel.

[illegible]HF—We find no change in rates since last [illegible] continue high to all ports

[illegible] 10 ships and 1 Brig loading for Liverpool, [illegible] Havre, 1 bark Marseilles, 1 ship for New [illegible] Philadelphia the two latter packets [illegible] about 4 other ships in port, 3 are dead engaged [illegible] destination not known. There are 15 ships [illegible] for Liverpool, the others principally coast[illegible]
