THE BEE.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING, SUNDAYS EXCEPTED, AT THE NEW ORLEANS BEE BUILDING, NO. 66 PLANTER STREET.

NEW ORLEANS:

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1860.

SUBSCRIPTION PAYMENTS.

Superintendent of circulation will pay the order of the bearer, as a gratuity, the price of the Bee, for any period not exceeding one month, to any person who shall bring a subscription to the office.

Subscribers who have paid in advance, and who have not received their papers, will be credited for the amount of their subscription, if they will report the fact to the office.

Subscribers who have paid in advance, and who have not received their papers, will be credited for the amount of their subscription, if they will report the fact to the office.

Subscribers who have paid in advance, and who have not received their papers, will be credited for the amount of their subscription, if they will report the fact to the office.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]