Extract from "An Ordinance to prevent obstructions, and to secure the safety and convenience of passenger in the streets, squares and other public ways in the city of New Orleans," approved August 25th, 1836:

ART. 14. It shall not be lawful to expose at windows, balconies or other parts of houses, walls or fences, any flower pots or boxes, or any other thing projecting on the street or public way, by which passengers may be incommoded or endangered, nor shall it be lawful either to throw, in the day or during the night, from the windows, balconies or other parts of the house, any water, filth, or any other thing that may injure, damage or soil any person passing by; nor to expose to sale any horses, mules or any other cattle, and to exercise horses in the streets, on the roads, levees or other public ways more than is necessary to ride, or to use there any sport or exercise likely to scare horses, injure passengers or embarrass the passage of carriages; and every person herein offending, shall pay a fine, of from ten to five dollars for the first offence, for which parents, guardians, masters and mistresses shall be responsible respectively for their minor children, apprentices or slaves.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.
COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. ONE.

Sitting of September 10, 1838.

RESOLVED, That the Mayor shall give notice during ten days, in the official Gazette, to all owners of grindstones and other materials whatsoever encumbering the triangular space of ground comprised between the Levee, Old and New Levee streets, to have them removed within the shortest possible delay.

Resolved, That, after a delay of ten days, the wijer fingerbe, and he is hereby authorised to cause to be removed, from the above-mentioned spot, the grindstones and other materials whatsoever, at the expense of the owners, to be disposed of as mentioned hereafter.

Resolved, That a fine of ten dollars shall be imposed for each contravention, upon any person depositing any materials whatsoever on the space above designated, belonging to the first municipality; further, it is forbidden to all persons to throw any rubbish over the stations, under the penalty of being fined five dollars for each contravention, of a fine of three person 2 and ten lashes at the police jail, if the slave, unless the owner of said slave should prefer paying said fine.

Be it further Resolved, That it shall be the special duty of the wharfinger to inspect every day the above-mentioned lot, and to cause to be removed therefrom, and disposed, at the expense of the owner, at such a place as may be designated by the mayor, all the materials whatsoever which he may find thereon, in case said materials should not be claimed and removed within a delay of three days after their removal, they shall be sold, after ten days' notice in the Official Gazette, at public auction, for the account and risk of the owners, who, in all cases, shall be held to pay the amount of the fine above prescribed, together with all the costs of drayage and sale of the above-mentioned objects.

(Signed) PAUL BERTUS, recorder.

Approved, September 11, 1838.

(Signed) C. GENOIS, mayor.

CONTI ST. HOTEL (formerly Richardson's)—This establishment will be re-opened on the 25th inst, under the management of R. Kedlock, Esq.—favorably known to the public, as the late proprietor of the "Hotel d'Orleans," the reputation of which, whilst under his charge, is well known. The house has undergone a thorough repair; and no pains or expense has been spared in rendering it equal in accommodations to any similar establishment in the city. The bar has been furnished with the choicest kinds of liquors, and the table will at all times be found to please the most fastidious taste; every attention and comfort will be rendered those who may visit it. The central position of the house, its proximity to many of the most important public buildings and offices, and being in one square of the steamboat landings, renders it a very desirable stopping place to those who may visit the city on pleasure or business.

N. B. The Bar was opened on the 11th instant.
