A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. Hair strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of age, which causes many so regretful, being uncertain and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jeers and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In not even the love of property fills the generous young youth with that heavy sinking gloom at the loss of his hair. The beautiful tresses, in a few instances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application; a few bottles restores it again. It likewise eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and frees the skin. Numerous certificates of the first reputability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the character of the following gentlemen.

I undersigned do hereby certify that we have used Oldridge's Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge; and we found it highly serviceable not only as a preventative against the falling off of the hair, but also in certain removal.
