New-York American of Sept. 16.
The Secretary of the Navy yesterday visited the U. S. frigate Hudson, now lying in the stream, under sailing orders. He was received with the accustomed salute. After inspecting the noble ship, he proceeded to the Navy Yard, and was there received with the same distinguished station.

The Hudson will proceed the first of this week for destination, on the Brazil station, which Commodore Crofton will take the command, relieving Com. Middle, who will return with the Macedonia, to the U. States.

The brig Victory, from Liverpool for New Orleans, left on July 26, and soon after was captured by the privateer, and was carried to the island of St. Thomas. A single tree was preserved, and is now in the hands of the British.

The ship of war Concord, building at Portsmouth, N. H., is ordered to be sent to New Orleans, and is now lying for sea.

Some German journals predict the approach of a comet, which will destroy the world in the year 1889. A like catastrophe, it may be remembered, was threatened in a communication to the French Academy of Sciences, in May 1773, by M. Delalande, when people died of fear, and the clergy sold places in Paradise at a large profit.
