COUGH REMEDY.—Pectoral Paste of Hoguantas, Drug Cordial Paste. Of all the remedies now known for the relief of coughs, none has ever obtained so universal a reputation as the Pectoral Paste, of vegetable. The happy results attended by its use, in relieving the affections of the lungs and consumptive diseases, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs immediately, facilitate the expectoration, and stops the cough. It is one of the best remedies for hoarseness, which usually yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the highest rank in the profession have used its effects in many cases, and have recommended its use in all lung affections, as a most counteptanous as the best remedy now known.

The above cough cure is obtained at M. Martin's, Drugist, No 171, Chartres st

BY AUTHORITY.

PROCLAMATION.

BY A. B. ROMAN,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, official information has been given by the District Attorney of the 8th Judicial District of this State, that one Rudolph K. Selby, was, on the 31st day of June last, murdered in the Parish of Jefferson, by William H. Robinson, and that said Wm. H. Robinson has been pursued, I have therefore, in pursuance of the power in me vested by the Constitution and laws, do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring said Wm. H. Robinson, and shall deliver to the Sheriff of the Parish of Washington, so that he may be prosecuted for said offence according to law.

Said Wm. H. Robinson is described to be about 25 or 30 years of age, 6 feet 2 or 3 inches in height, of ordinary stout, straight, well made and generally well dressed; a native of Virginia, has a scar on his face, and is supposed to be armed and equipped as a military officer, and is addicted to drink, and of quarrelsome disposition when in a state of intoxication. When last seen he was travelling down the Mississippi river, armed with a rifle and bowie knife.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State, at New Orleans, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1841, and of the Independence of the United States of America the sixty ninth.

CARROLLTON ACADEMY.—The subscribers have the honor of announcing to the inhabitants of Carrollton as well as the adjacent parishes, that on the second of November next, the Institution will be opened, under their superintendence, for the reception of boys, both as boarding and day scholars. They flatter themselves that the most zealous attention shall be devoted to their moral and intellectual improvement.

The local advantages of Carrollton are well known—the healthiness and the spacious and shady grounds—the garden and premises are well adapted for the purpose, and they have every respect attendant upon a boarding house.

As the institution will be directed by persons who have passed the age of pupils in scholastic pursuits, the advantages of this arrangement are not well to be understood.

Preparations will be made for a suitable supply of the necessaries of life, and for the comfort and convenience of the scholars. The same attention as usual of sing-sing will be given.

The academical year will be divided into two sessions of the winter term commencing on the 1st of January and ending on the 15th of July, and the summer term commencing on the 15th of July and ending on the 15th of December.
