NOTICE.

The undersigned having established his residence in the Parish of Iberville, two or three miles above Bayou Plaquemine, and on the same side, follows the practice of his profession, and will regularly attend the District and Parish Courts of East and West Baton Rouge, Pointe Coupee, St. Jacques, Ascension and other parts of Louisiana. In taking charge of the causes which may be entrusted to him, the undersigned will always agree with his clients (when they will make known their wishes to do so) to conduct them himself without an increase of salary, till the appeal inclusively. If the case require it. A practice of nearly twenty years, as well in New-Orleans, as in the above mentioned Parishes, seem to dispense with the necessity of reflecting that his zeal, activity, and attention to business will leave nothing to be wished for, by his clients in the success of the causes which may be entrusted to him.

The undersigned has left to his fellow-members of the bar, Mr. P. Soule, residing in New-Orleans, and partner of Mr. Louis Wilson, the unfinished business of his office, which he has delivered to him. The talents of Mr. Soule, and of Mr. Moreau Lisle, his partner, are the best security to be wished for that those causes will be conducted to the last in a suitable manner. Besides, the undersigned, whenever his causes in appeal will call him to New-Orleans, will unite his care to those of those gentlemen. All persons in New-Orleans, having commitments to forward to the undersigned may do it with more celerity by giving them to his brother, M. Couvillier, Clerk in the office of the Superior Court's Clerk, residing at No. 47 St. Peter street, opposite the parish Hall.

A negro woman named AGNES, aged about 34 years, about 5 feet high, big lips, big nose and eyes, has a front tooth missing, an old scar of about four inches on her neck, and a circle of the plantation of St. Charles, formerly planter of the parish of Assumption.
