BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.
New-Orleans, May 11th 1841.

THE undersigned is authorised by the parties to contract for the entire cutting of a channel through the bend of the Mississippi River above the town of Carrollton, provided the same can be formed in accordance with a plan and specifications which may be seen at the office of the Board of Public Works, and also with an appropriation made for that purpose by the Legislature of the State—all of which can be found on file in the Public Offices, of New-Orleans. Proposals will be received by the Board, to secure a faithful execution of the contract. It is confidently believed that a highly advantageous term can be obtained for such a work, if it be supposed to enter into a contract for the work of the channel, for more proposals be done.

THOS. W. CHINN
President of the Board of Public Works.

(☞ The Red River Whig, at Alexandria, will please publish the above twice a week for two months, and forward the bill for Honorary service to the Board.)

DENTISTRY.—It is now no matter of mere sitting for a Mineral Teeth, instead of the Factory of Hippocrates from our to six artificial mechanical teeth which is guaranteed for ten years. The guarantee is given to the six front teeth of the upper jaw. The others are only mentioned when in manner.

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED QUEEN OF THE WEST.

THE undersigned, agent for the sale of this article, for the most time interested to the notice of the New-Orleans public, begs to assure those who by to consult public attention thereto.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility.

We, the undersigned, have been for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, and on mature trying, not acquainted testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy, and general usefulness, we think it surpasses any other cooking stove that we have seen in use. It seems to have supplied every, at least, that our furniture stoves—as oven, apparatus, and all the same time relief from smoke and dirty cinders—and the following place where it can be brought the best immediately, to stand with the best possible quality of iron; and the different stoves made, and tested and found the same of all from the smallest family to the largest hotels and steamboats.

LIFE INSURANCE.

OAN INSURANCE COMPANY.—The absence of any institution in the city for insuring life, and the extraordinary rates of premium demanded by the Northern and Eastern companies for granting life policies on a risk assigns in Louisiana, have determined the Board of Directors of this Company to put into operation that clause in their charter which authorizes them to receive such sums of premiums which will enable every one who is in receipt of a moderate annual income to secure for those who are dependent on them a comfortable provision in case of their death.

The rates be determined as nearly as possible, the average of those adopted by the London and Philadelphia Offices in England. In addition whatever being made for difference of climate, and by this scale, an annual premium of twenty dollars paid by a person 25 years old will secure the payment of one thousand dollars to his assigns should he die within the year; an annual premium of one hundred dollars will secure five thousand dollars—and so on in proportion for any sum required.

The Company will offer policies for any term from one to seven years, and the premiums can be paid quarterly, half yearly or yearly.

Any further information that may be required will be furnished on application to the office, No. 81 Camp street, corner of Gravier street.

By order of the Board

CHS BRIGGS, Secretary.

COUGH REMEDY.—Pectoral Paste of Dogwoodine, Drug of the Forest.—(O—All the remedies now known to the cure of coughs, colds, have not obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste, of real virtue. The happy results attained by its usage in the affections of the lungs and consumption, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs, also lately, facilitates the expectoration, and stops, in a short time, the most remedies and the cold, catarrhs, &c. which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the best standing in Paris have tested its effects in many cases, and have recommended its use in all lung affections, and cause of consumption in the best remedy now known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Druggist, No. 121, Chartres st.

JARVIS & ANDREWS,
91 Common street and 7 Canal street Row

THE location of this house being central, half way between the river and canal, and upon the highest level upon Main street, and convenient to all kinds of business, together with the late additions and improvements made, it now the most desirable hotel in the city for merchants and travellers in general. Fare not surpassed by any hotel in the city—bills moderate, attendance polite, feeling grateful for past favors, I hope by strict attention to the comfort of all who may call to merit a continuance of public favor and patronage.

M. R.—A brick stable is attached to the house, and good hostlers in attendance.

Baggage taken to and from the river and canal free of charge when called for. WM. R. MARSH

Proprietor.
