COLON REMEDY—Pectoral Paste of Ingentrain, Druggist at Paris.—Of all the remedies yet known for the cure of coughs, none has ever obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste of Ingentrain. The happy results obtained by its usage in the affections of the lungs and consumption, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs mechanically, facilitates the expectoration, and allows the cough. It is one of the best remedies in colds, catarrhs, &c, which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the first standing in Paris have recommended it in many cases, and have recommended its use in all lung affections, and as an consumption as the best remedy now known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Druggist, No. 171, Chartres st.

SELF-PROTECTORS, or Travellers and House Keepers.—Self-cocking and Ball revolving Pocket Pistols.—This pistol can be discharged six times with almost the rapidity of a single shot. The pistol cock the barrel revolves and discharges, merely by pulling the trigger; not requiring the cock as the common pistol, they can be fired the moment they are taken from the pocket, with one hand only. They are no larger than an ordinary pocket pistol, and weighing but thirteen ounces, can be carried in the pocket without the least inconvenience. The locks and the whole pistol are not so liable to get out of order as the common pistol.

Gentlemen are invited to call at the store of the inventors, and examine the same, as their simplicity, perfect safety, inclinability to get out of order, will certainly recommend them to all others.

For travellers, housekeepers, captains, and planters, they are an indispensable article, as persons, both male and female, can with this pistol protect their lives and property if attacked by several persons. For sale wholesale and retail by
