SUMMER EXCURSION.
THE proprietors of the Tar and White Sulphur Springs of the Rough Creek Springs, of the Grayson springs and of the Mammoth Cave, have respectively prepared for the accommodation of visitors the ensuing summer.
No region of the United States contains a greater variety of valuable mineral waters, a more salubrious atmosphere or romantic scenery, than that extending from the Ohio River to the Mammoth Cave, by way of the various watering places above mentioned. It is the opinion of many of the first western physicians, that there are no waters in the United States, equal to the Tar and White Sulphur, for pulmonary and cutaneous diseases, whilst the Rough Creek and Grayson Springs equal the Saratoga or Virginia Springs in the virtues and variety of their waters.
The Mammoth Cave has already acquired such celebrity in the scientific world, for its stupendous vaults and dark recesses, its petrifactions, subterraneous lakes, rivers, eyeless fishes, &c, that a more particular description of it is needless.
The whole country abounds in deer and smaller game, and hounds will be kept for the chase. Daily stages will run from Cloverport, a town on the Ohio River, 100 miles below Louisville, to the Tar and White Sulphur Springs, and weekly to the Mammoth Cave, passing by the Rough Creek, and Grayson Springs.
The distances are as follows—from Cloverport to the Tar Springs, 4 miles; from thence to Rough Creek Springs 15 miles; from thence to Grayson Springs 25 miles; from thence to the Cave 30 miles.
A daily stage will run from the Cave, a distance of 8 miles, to the mail route leading from Nashville to Louisville, which it intersects a few miles south of where it branches to Harrisburg, Lexington, &c. Visitors at the springs can have their letters directed to Cloverport, Ky.
Boarding at the springs, $6 per week, or $30 per month. 4m
