LOUISIANA INSTITUTION.

Rampart street No 74, between Bienville and Conti

This director of this establishment, it has the honor to inform the public, that the system of tuition in this school, which he has so successfully employed, having gained him the approbation and kindness of his Fellow citizens, and a number of pupils, he will continue to devote all his exertions and perseverance that are expected from him who has the firm conviction that it is by the means of prompt fees in order to be in the future to the pupils of his school prosperity all his efforts tend.

In order that parents may more easily appreciate the system and merits of our method, the principal will take pleasure in admitting every day into the interior of his school, persons who will judge of the progress of his pupils and activity which our labor impresses upon the studies.

In this institution the care no prioritized—to art—otherwise than the pupils—the pupils—to art—to art—to contemplate. The vanquished yesterday is the victor to-day. An examination which takes place every Thursday, which facilitates the progress of the pupils, and which the professor knows his pupils, and has discovered the means of revealing and keeping alive the love of study. The experience of the past, and the results of experience which have nothing in them cold or annoying, shall recite will deign to honor him with their presence.

Reading, writing, arithmetic, and the whole tuition, the active superintendence (day pupils, and my desire to respondin a proper manner to the confidence of parents) of receiving agreeably to the charter and regulations of the and Citizens' Bank; and to pay the balance of the purchase money as follows, viz—Five hundred and fifty dollars cash, and the balance in two and three years credit. lot number three, together with the buildings and stock, on the following terms, viz—The purchaser will pay to the Citizens' Bank, on account of the succession, the sum of five hundred and six ten dollars, due on the 1st August, 1844, with the privilege of removing the payment of said sum, agreeably to the charter and regulations of said Bank, and to pay the balance of the purchase money as follows, viz—One hundred and fifty dollars cash, and the balance at one, two and three years credit.

Given under our hand, this 27 DUPLESSIS, Register of Wills

N. B—The acts of sale at the expense of the purchasers before Felix Percy, Esq. notary public.

SPRING HILL COLLEGE—ALABAMA.

THIS Institution, which has been so favorably patronized by the Rev. Clergy, favorably known, as Curate of St Augustine, Past Dialect, President of the College, and Mr J C Quin, Esq. Prefect of Studies, WILKINSON, Cashier.

The selection of these two ancient professors, will have a high appreciation for their experience, and since it fail to gratify every friend and patron of the institution.

In order to comply with the wishes expressed by parents residing in Havana, an excellent Professor of German is engaged and will commence his course as soon as the number of pupils shall justify the undertaking. Parents desiring their children to commencial pursuits will find few establishments where similar advantages exist for the perfect and practical acquisition of the English, French, Spanish and German languages.

As reports have been circulated unfavorable to the salubrity of the Spring Hill Institution, it may not be amiss to state the fact that during the year 1842, the physician of the establishment has been called but a single time, at the commencement of the spring, to attend a case of slight indisposition.

The classes will recommence on the 10th of January. Apply for information, to Mr. J. Bamjoy, President, at Mr Charles Barrett's, from 10 o'clock a. m. till 12 o'clock, between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m. which is fixed for the 10th instant, to the agent of the College. 1t 110

CANAL STREET INFIRMARY,

OR MAISON DE SANTE.

Corner of Canal and Claiborne streets.

THIS institution, under the direction of Doctors Stone, Kennedy and Carpenter, has been completely reorganized, and is now in full operation, ready for the reception of patients. The wards are arranged in such a manner as to afford them comfort and convenience, and are kept in order from equality of temperature at every season. The terms of admission are as follows:

Private rooms of first floor, per day	3 00
Wards on second floor	2 00
Ordinary Wards on thirdfloor	2 00
Nurse	1 50

These charges include all medical attendance, nursing, &c. &c. All capital surgical operations charged for extra. Complete attendance, both male and female, will be constantly in the service of the Infirmary.

Medical gentlemen sending patients to the Maison de Sante, will be charged the ordinary attendance; such attendance, however, not to interfere with the regular charges of the institution.

Rides to and from the Infirmary.—All persons, on admission, are required, to security, to give satisfactory city referees; or to deposit as follows:

Tickets in the first floor. $50 00

On the second floor 30 00
