Runaway Slave.
One hundred dollars reward
Will be given to any person who will arrest and lodge in the jail of this city, or any other jail in this state, the American runaway slave named JAMES, about sixteen or eighteen, American measure, speaking English only and understanding but a little French. He is from 30 to 36 years old, strongly built, and has a scar on the left side of his cheeks. This slave belonged last winter to Messrs. Townsley and I have purchased him. He is somewhat of a shoemaker and was learning the trade when he ran away; said slave is a native of Virginia, arrived here from Norfolk about 7 months since. He speaks slooly and has but few words on the head, can read and write a little. Captains of Steamboats and other persons are forbidden to harbour said slave under penalty of the law; citizens are also requested not to receive him in their houses.
The same reward will be given should he be lodged in any jail out of this state.
