Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Louisiana.

Life Insurance Exclusively.

RESERVE GUARANTEE FUND $50,000.
ACCUMULATIVE CAPITAL $500,000.

PARENT OFFICE, NO. 48 CAMP ST., New Orleans.

THIS COMPANY is now ready to make Insurance on the lives of Persons and Slaves, at the usual rates, without premium. This being the only Company in operation in the State confined to Life Insurance, it is expected that the liberality of the Directors will enable them to afford unusual and much greater inducements to those desirous of effecting an insurance on their lives than any other.

It is assumed the Mutual principle, each person assured becoming member thereof, and receiving a portion of its profits being entirely exempt from any liability beyond the amount of premium assumed.

Insurance regulated upon the mutual principle are generally successful, more especially those exclusively confined to Life, as they are based upon calculations of a large correct long experience and close scrutiny, but the stability and success of the Company is placed beyond a contingency, by the advantageous arrangement she has made for an undoubted guarantee fund of 50,000 dollars, to be used or reserved, as subscriptions to mutual insurance companies always are, by insurance.

The extra guarantee fund of 50,000 dollars renders presumed that the Company has accumulated a handsome amount to take its place.

☞ Premiums payable granted, and extensive travelling privilege allowed.

DR. BUCHAN'S HYGIENIC ELIXIR

AGAINST SEA-SICKNESS.

FOR a long time past the attention of many of our men especially, appears to have been struck with the remarkable fact, that among the large and valuable collection of sanative agents discovered, not one has been found to counteract or even mitigate the dreadful effects of sea-sickness. Powerful means have been tried, to attain this end. These remedies, whether simple or compound, after many trials, have hitherto proved signal failures. Anodynes may be formed thereof by the pursuit of the avenues of Pharmacy, Chemistry and Medicine of all countries, published within the last two years.

The inventor of the "Hygienic Elixir," has at length made this invaluable discovery. After numerous trials, changes and alterations in the proportions of the substances composing this Elixir, he is enabled to offer it to travelers in the shape of a palatable draught, not decomposed or altered either by climate or age.

The Elixir chases one sickness immediately, and renders the stomach able to receive food. Surveyed delicate by the constitution of the person using it, it is equally infallible, and procures a pound healthy of ease and comfort. The unknown sensations of languor, c.m and sleep are restored, the appetite awakened, and the digestion effected promptly under the influence of this tonic.

The inventor having had an opportunity during a recent sea voyage, to make personally a final trial of the Elixir, has conceived it his bounden duty to offer it to the public. He could corroborate the above statements from his own experience, and on the strongest appeal only to the opinions of one of the most intelligent and distinguished commanders of the French Imperial Navy. Capt. Lahory, having had opportunities of testing, during a long and severe sea pervasion, the efficacy of this remedy, (then in the shape of pills) during several voyages, gives the result

Dear Doctor—During my last voyage to France, I have had opportunities of testing on divers persons your remedy against sea-sickness. I am happy to be enabled to report to you that I have obtained the most decisive results, and if it were possible to clear the remedy into a palatable draught, such as a lemonade of some kind, (which could be more easily taken than the pills) I should be enabled to cure almost all the persons I have, especially when the sea-sickness has already commenced,) nothing more would be required, and you would be entitled to the everlasting gratitude of all those who are obliged to travel by sea, without being accustomed thereto.

I am yours, truly,
A. LAHORY, Com'r Ship l'Oscar.

The improvement suggested by Capt. Lahory has been effected. The Tonic and Hygienic Elixir against sea-sickness, is sold in first-rate bottles, with glass stoppers. Care must be taken to keep the bottles corked to prevent evaporation.
