INSTITUTIONS

MADAME DEVINE'S INSTITUTION

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Corner of Bienville and Bourbon streets.

THE Exercises of this Institution will commence on the 1st October, when the classes will be formed and the Teachers are employed in giving instructions in the French, Spanish, and Italian languages, Drawing and Dancing. The piano, harp and guitar, as well as vocal music, are taught by Professors of highest standing and qualifications.

There are now eight instructors in the institution, and it is the aim of the Principals to make it, in all respects, such as parents may desire for their daughters. Every care is taken not only to instil pure morals, and promote habits of correct, lady-like deportment in the pupils, but to make them intelligent as well as accomplished, and, consequently, fit them for society and future usefulness.

Young ladies from the country, living in the family as boarders, share in the enjoyments, privileges and attentions of daughters, and are uniformly treated, not as strangers, but as members of a family school, as daughters of an affectionate family.

To the establishment is attached a large and well selected library, and every facility for the acquisition of general knowledge as to the improvements and changes that are continually taking place in the literary, scientific and political worlds, leading perpendicular of a truly valuable character, and standard books of reference, are at the command of the young ladies well advanced in school education, for the important purposes of exercising them to acquire useful knowledge for themselves, by means of research and examination.

Monthly reports issued, as to progress and conduct.

A class for the study of the Latin language, will be formed on the first of November, and one on the use of the Globes.

References are made to parents who have had their daughters at the institution for years; and further particulars and circulars can be obtained by applying, personally, or by letters either to Dr or Mrs. Macauley. 8 22

LOUISIANA COLLEGE.

Dauphine street, between Ursulines and Hospital etc.

LOUIS DUFAU, PRINCIPAL.

THE Principal of this new establishment is in hopes of founding an institution which may offer to the youth of Louisiana the same resources and advantages as the College of the North and of Europe. In order to achieve this object, he will associate with himself the most distinguished Professors of New Orleans.

The Principal will spare no pains, and will endeavor constantly to develop in his pupils the moral attributes, as well as cultivate the faculties of the mind. He considers that it is as important to bring up children well as to instruct them well, and he is convinced that all education, in order to be fruitful and solid, may rest on a base of morality and religion.

The course of study in the College of Louisiana will comprise Instruction in the Dead and Living Languages, (Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish,) History, Geography, Philosophy, Rhetoric, the Mathematical and Natural Sciences, Political Economy, Chemistry, Belles Lettres, &c.

English, being the National Language, will be the foundation of instruction in the College of Louisiana, and the greater portion of the classes will recite in English. Young Gentlemen have already been engaged by the Principal. Mr. Orton, well known in New Orleans, will take charge of the higher classes; another, whose native language likewise is English, will remain constantly with the pupils, in order to accustom them to speak correctly the language and to pronounce it with the accent which will be paid to the History of the United States.

The course of instruction will be in four classes, viz:

First Class, per month	$12 00
Second Class, per month	10 00
Third Class, per month	8 00
Fourth Class, per month	6 00

Extra charge will be made for Music, Drawing, Painting, Dancing and Fencing, all of which will be taught in the College.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

In compliance with the request of many parents, the Principal has opened a Primary School for young of age, who will have no connection with the pupils in the College, but will be instructed between the hours of 8 and 11 A. M. The charge for these children will be only $5.

HALF BOARDERS.

In order to preserve good order and discipline the Pupils, either of the College or the Primary School, who may be authorized by their parents, can breakfast and dine in the establishment, for which an additional charge of $1 per month will be made.

The classes for the pupils in the College will commence at half-past eight in the morning, and finish at half-past five in the evening.

The formal opening of the scholastic year, 1850-'52, will take place on the 1st of October next.

For further particulars, application may be made to the Principal, at his residence, Dauphine street, the hours of 9 and 11 in the morning and 4 and 6 in the afternoon. The public are invited to visit the establishment, where they can procure prospectuses. 9 30 3m

JEFFERSON ACADEMY,

53 Bourbon street, New Orleans.

CONDUCTED BY J. G. LORD.

THE plan of this institution is to combine a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and can continue till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life.

They are distributed into classes according to their talents and acquirements.

The premises are perhaps the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, every necessary convenience is combined for an institution of learning on a large scale.

The Professors are gentlemen of talents, chosen with the utmost care, and the rules of the establishment and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.

Terms — per month, $25 00
Half Boarders, do 15 00
Day Scholars under 9 years of age, do 8 00

G. HOVER'S INSTITUTION.

No. 145, Conti St., between Dauphine & Burgundy.

MR. G. HOVER, founder of the establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, takes this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. The institution is conducted in a large spacious, airy, central position, healthy, well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly suited. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, comprehends all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education, from primary instruction to the more abstruse subjects which have for their object a complete and collegiate course. The elementary studies are taught by the Principal, the more ordinary ones, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction—are taught by competent assistants, under his immediate supervision. Young men who are advanced in classical study, not forming a good education, be carried and cheapness. He will also undertake to put up the paper. 5 26 DELCROIX, 106 Chartres st.
