MEDICAL.

A Desperate Case of convulsions cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Mr. Hopkins, of Sydney, Wheeler's Creek, Bathurst, New South Wales, of convulsions in the New South Wales gaols that Phoebe Evans, the daughter of Mr. Charles Evans, of Bathurst, was perfectly delighted for years, with scrofula in the neck, and her body was covered with a peculiar break of pimples, out of which scaled a dirty mucus. Her health became exceedingly gone in trying various medicines and consulting medical advice; but these used Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which in a short period cured her entirely; and thus she has continued in the most perfect health to the present time.

Sold by all respectable vendors of Medicines throughout the British Empire, and also the United States, in pots and boxes, at 27½d, costs 87½d, costs and $1 36 ea, cash; Wholesale by the principal Drug Houses in the Union. Jan 1 Wed Fri Sun 1 y

INSTITUTIONS.

Masonic Institute for Young Ladies.

Encouraged by the success of the Institution during the past year, and by the demand for a Boarding Department, the Trustees have determined to open for the reception of boarders the ensuing scholastic year, which will commence on the first Monday in September, and continue for ten months, with a vacation of two weeks in the month of December, for the purpose of enabling the pupils to visit their friends at the Christmas holidays. The Institute will be under the same management as heretofore, and the Trustees have secured the services of a lady of long experience in the management of a Boarding School, and a corps of competent Professors, who will employ every effort to promote the moral and intellectual improvement of the young ladies committed to their charge. The Institute will be furnished with a full set of Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, and the Trustees have secured the services of a competent Professor, who will employ every effort to promote the moral and intellectual improvement of the young ladies committed to their charge. The Institute will be furnished with a full set of Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, and the Trustees have secured the services of a competent Professor, who will devote his entire time to the duties of his chair. The Professors will, therefore, have a proper right to be held responsible for their work and will be delivered to the Board of Trustees.

The Institute is situated in a healthy, pleasant and convenient locality, and possesses all the advantages of a country residence, with the facilities of a city. Its grounds are large and well adapted to the purpose, and have been improved and ornamented at great expense, and are kept in good order. The Institute will be furnished with all the necessary furniture, and will be provided with a full supply of bedding, linen, &c. The Trustees will be delighted to receive the children of the same age as Pupils, and will be prepared to receive Boarders.

The Institute will be under the management of the following Board of Trustees, who will be ready to wait on the parents of pupils, and to give information in regard to the Institute:

Hon. Pierre Soulé, Hon. Judge Rost,
Hon. Judge Cenas, Hon. Judge Lea,
