COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY EVENING, March 18, 1856.

The Cotton market has been very quiet to-day, and only about 2,000 bales have been sold at every price, without any quotable decline.

[illegible]

Of Molasses, only 200 bbls have been sold at 26@28c. for good to choice lots.

Flour has been in good request, with sales of about 2,000 bbls at $6 75@7 25 (Hignett at $6 62½), and 1,500 sacks do at $7 12½@7 50.

Of Meal, not quotable and sold at $4 50. 500 inferior and damaged at $3, and best Brandywine at the ex-store price of $4 62½.

Of Grain, 1,700 sacks prime Rye brought 90@92c. Of Corn, about 500 bbls mixed and white sold at 60c.

We notice sales of 50 casks Bacon Sides at 7¾@8c.

A lot of 200 casks fancy Bale Rope (Louisiana Manufactory) sold at 7c.

Of Whiskey, 100 bbls Rectified were sold at 19c, and 70 do lots at 20@20c.

Of Rice, 100 bags Western have been disposed of at 3 3/16@3½, and 50 do at 3½c.

Of Cotton, 1,700 sacks prime St. Domingo sold at 9½c.

Of Pork, about 300 bbls mixed and other sold at 18½@19