MERCANTILE.

New Orleans, June 11, 1856.

There has been a fair demand for cotton during the week, and the market has closed to-day in good order, at nearly the prices of last week. Prices are very nearly the same as last week.

LIVERPOOL CLASSIFICATION—LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI.

Inferior	3¾ @ 4¾	Middling Fair	7½ @ 7¾
Ordinary	4¾ @ 5¾	Fair	7¾ @ 8
Low Middling	5¾ @ 6¾	Good Fair	8 @ 8½
Middling	6¾ @ 7¾	Good Fair	8½ @ 9
Good Middling	7¾ @ 7¾	Good and Fine	9 @ 10

In Texas, the receipts for the week have been 1,000 bales, and 200 are reported to-day, at 7¾ @ 8¾ for ordinary to fair quality.

Of Sugar, 300 hhds have been sold at 7¾ @ 8¾ for Fair to Fully Fair.

Sales of 300 bbls Molasses at 22 @ 25 c. gallon for fair to prime.

Of Flour, 500 bbls superfine have been sold at $6 75 @ $7 bbl.

Corn is dull and lower, at 90 @ 95c. for mixed and white, and inferior to 85 c. for yellow.

Pork is dull, and lower, with sales only one lot of 600 barrels at $18 @ $18 50 for prime.

Of Whisky, 300 bbls Western Reserve have been sold at 24 @ 25 c. gallon.

Of Bacon, 100 sides of Shoulders have been sold at 7½ @ 7¾ c. lb.

Of Lard, 300 kegs have been sold at 8½ @ 9 c. lb.

Of Hay, 100 bales sold at $18 @ $19 bale.

Of Oats, 300 sacks sold at 35 c. bushel.

Of Bran, 300 sacks sold at 65 c. bushel.

Of Rice, 100 pockets sold at 3½ @ 4 c. lb.

Of Coffee, 150 sacks Rio sold at 10½ @ 11 c. lb.

Of Sugar, 300 hhds Cuba sold at 7½ @ 8½ c. lb.

Of Molasses, 100 hhds Cuba sold at 22 c. gallon.

Of Tobacco, 100 bales of Virginia sold at 6 @ 8 c. lb.

Of Whisky, 300 bbls Western Reserve sold at 24 c. gallon.

Of Bacon, 100 sides of Shoulders sold at 7½ c. lb.

Of Lard, 300 kegs sold at 8½ c. lb.

Of Hay, 100 bales sold at $18 @ $19 bale.

Of Oats, 300 sacks sold at 35 c. bushel.

Of Bran, 300 sacks sold at 65 c. bushel.

Of Rice, 100 pockets sold at 3½ @ 4 c. lb.

Of Coffee, 150 sacks Rio sold at 10½ @ 11 c. lb.

Of Sugar, 300 hhds Cuba sold at 7½ @ 8½ c. lb.

Of Molasses, 100 hhds Cuba sold at 22 c. gallon.

Of Tobacco, 100 bales of Virginia sold at 6 @ 8 c. lb.

In Lard, we have to-day 1,000 kegs sold at 10½ @ 11