NEB-OKLIMANS, SATURDAY, (MORNING,) FURRUARY 5, 1831.

By the Esgish ship John Marsh, capt. Glucas, arrived yesterday from Liverpool, we understand that a gentleman of this city received papers of two or three days later date than the last accounts via New-York. They were already lent when we applied for the perusal of them: we learned however, that they contain no political news of importance, with the exception of some revolutionary movements, which are stated to have taken place in Poland. These were partitle operation of a steady course of Legislatial in their extent, and no decisive results were attive protection, have gained such a degree of anticipated. It was thought they might have a consolidation and stability, that they now defy tendency to check the intended operations of competitionin all markets, foreign and domestic Russia against France, if, in fact, any hostile designs are seriously entertained by the Empe-

Some commercial letters received by the same conveyance were shown us, which state that the cotton market is exceedingly heavy and the prospect bad. Disturbances among the cotton spiners and laborers in the interior, had rather from making extensive purchases.
