(From the Journal du Commerce d'Anvers) ANTWERF. Feb. 5 .- An event, equally cruel and extraordinary, has just happened on the Scheldt. A Dutch gum boat, at anchor in the road, was driven on shore near Fort St Lawrence. As soon as its distress was perceived a great many workmen and several guards hasaned to the vessel to protect it if necessary, and to afford it all the assistance which men owe to each ether in distress. Captain Gregoire went on board to assure the crew of his good offices, whilst his comrades were preparing to assist it At that moment it blew up with a terrible explution. The whole of the crew was on deck. It was then that the captain, a violent and resolute man, set fire to the powder mag zine. It is dif-icult to conceive the motive of this terrible reso-

This young man, in open day, and in the presence of both armies, con-ceived the bold design of bringing off one of those horses as a prize. In a low piece ground between both sentinels, were a few scat tering alders, by means of which he contrived to pass both lines undiscovered, and made direct for the pasture where the horses, with their sud dles on, were feeding, and their bridles slipped about their neck. Bulston Spa. Gaz.

It is well known that vigorous exertions ha of late been made by a sect who appear to be striving for the mastery, to establish Sunday Schools in the Mississippi Valley, with their vowed intention of checking what they conceive o be the two rapid progress of the dozinas of the Roman Catholic Church

It may be well enough for those who has faith in their own creed being the only right on and who are therefore confident that by substi tuting their own dogmas in place of what they onceive to be the erroneous ones of the Rouns Church, they are conferring upon their fellow creatures in that section of the country the most mportant benefit in their power to bestow, or of the others to receive. It may be well enough for them, I say, who believe this, to use their xertions as individuals to accomplish this, to rem desirable object.

But while the Constitution of the Conte States, guarantees perfect freedom of religious pinions to all, and while even the advocates of unday Mail stopping profess to reprobate the dea of Congress legislating upon religious sub ects, and to detest as much as any one a main Church and State, while this is the case, it is say the least, unbecoming in the distinguished individuals who are at the head of the Varion, or engaged as members of Congress, to publicly express their approbation of a plan of this kind uning as it does to procure the advancement of one religion to the downf ill of an ther, and while acting under this Constitution to aid with talentind money in the laying as it were the corne tone on which will, ere long, be reared the edi fice of Church and State.

Yet such has been the case, at a meeting held in Washington City, for this purpose. Many of the most infinential members of Congress at nded and some of the officers of (2) and even the President, of the United States who was prevented from attending, sent a mesage, which, like the speeches made on the or casion, abounded with expressions of zeal to the success of the cause and the accomplish ment of the object in view, viz: the establish ment of Presbyterianism. For if Roman Cath other ism, and when that is conquered, unother, intil all shall have been swal owed up, and shall have in reality an established reagion-a union of Church and State. I am well aware that many persons deem the ears unnecessary; but when we see our legislators thus publicly expressing their zeal in this cause, and aiding with talents and money in itecomplish nent, and when we reflect that before these men is to come the question of stopping the Sunday Mail, which, if sauctioned by them, will but act as an entering wedge to other encrouchments on the right of conscience. When we hear them declaring that on the Bible only rist the fabric of Government, &c., have we no cause to fear that they are willing to act as tool a the hands of an aspiring clergy, and to go with them as far as they shall wish to carry their elf aggrandizement.

The object of these men is popularity; popularity; larity by any means. The liberties of their coun try weigh but lightly when placed by them n the scale of their own exaltation; and will the people of these united States, with these facts elore their own eyes, and the example of all othr countries before them; will they still allow such men to act as legislators and administra tors of a Free Government? No: they cannot they will rise in their might and hurl the set unfaithful servants from their seats, in spite of mership, on the 30th of June next, in virtue
