The ship Othello, from Liverpool in a pas sage of twenty one days, and bound up for Sa vannah, was boarded by the pilot boat on the Charleston bar. Late and interesting intelli ence may be expected next mail.

By yesterday's mail, New-York dates of the 20th, Philadelphia and Baltimore of the 21st, Washington of the 22d, and Charleston of the 25th ult. inclusive, have been received. By the ship United States, capt. Winsor, at New-York on the 19th ult., London dates up to the 24th of March have been received. The information though not absolutely new is interesting in as much as it confirms several items of intelligence received by prior arrivals.

The whole current of public attention was thrown on the Relief Bill. A favorable change has taken place in the London money market.

English Funds on the 22d, 1 past 4 P. M.-Consols 761, bills of the Exchequer 16 a 17 .-Business was rather dull, with a slight advance, however, since Saturday March 19th. The victorious results of the debate in the House, on the topic of the Reform Bill, instantaneously chang ed the aspect of things, and marked indications of joy pervaded the city. The success of the measure created an unprecedented stir; and crowds of speculators, long before the usual hour for business, thronged the stock Exchange. "At 10 o'clock," says the Morning Chronicle of the 24th, " the market was more crowded than on any former occasion within our recollection, and at that hour the cheering became general, accompanied with so brisk a demand for stock, that an advance of near one per cent. occurred on the closing price of the previous day." The first quotations for account were 763; in a short time consols had risen to 76$ with a momentary decline of 1; but they soon recovered their ground on the purchase of 300,000l by four influential buy. Morning Chronicle holds the following language on the subject :

" By the present plan, Ministers have rallied around them almost every man in the country, who has not an intelligible, sinister interest prompting him to opposition. Having thus secured the nation, it would be the height of imprudence to submit to any such alteration of the measure as might render it generally unacceptable. They have wisely, therefore, determined to carry through the measure in its integrity.-With the support of the nation, they have nothing to fear from politic I opponents; for no Ministry can be found in this country on a principle contrary to Reform. Ministers have, therefore, firm ground to stand on, and may confidently set their enemies at defiance.

In the House of Lords last night, in spite of the determination to avoid discussion as much as possible on the presentation of petitions, some of their Lordships, agitated no doubt, by the vote of the preceding evening, were unable to contain themselves. Lord Roden, in particular said he was "not one of those who were hostile to all Reform; and it would be a Revolutionary Reform that would be effected if Parliament were to pass the present measure." This called up Lord Grey, who said "he could not hear that assertion-for assertion it was, and not argument -without meeting it with a contrary and most left that market without material change i confident assertion, that the measure in question had no such tendency." His Lordship observ ed, also-" that if this measure were to fail in his hands now, and the present Government should be dissolved on that principle, the consequence would be, that Reform would be after wards forced upon men in office; and such a reform, and under such circumstances. that there was a great reason to fear that then the Reform would, indeed, be Revolutionary."

The Prince of Orange left London for Rotterdam. According to the Paris journals, the Ministry are prepared to coerce the movements of the population; and, in order to be borne out in the execution of their plans, by a more commending power, they were concentrated in Paris, a body of 30,000 regulars. New York, april 20. FROM BORDEAUX.—Capt. Myers, of the brig Homer, arrived this morning in the short passage of twenty-eight days from Bordeaux, informs us that he learned from his pilot, on the day he sailed, that a courier had passed through Bordeaux from Paris, and had reported that a great battle had been fought between the Russians and Poles, in which the latter were victorious, and took ten thousand of their enemies prisoners. The courier also reported that an exensive insurrection had broken out in Russia, in consequence of which part of the army had suddenly been withdrawn from Poland. These tidings occasioned great rejoicing in Bordeaux. The news has reference, probably, to the same events which we mentioned from the London Conrier yesterday: but coming through an entirely different channel, it may be regarded as a confirmation, in some measures, of previous ac-

NEW-ORLEANS AMERICAN. T is intended to establish a new evening daily paper in the fauxbonry St. Marie - under the above title. - The plan was suggested by several distinguished commercial men in that vicinitywho have promised their support in the first place to the experiment and their continues patronage should the publication be found to merit it. - The undertaking has as yet no claim upon the patronage of the American public (to whose interests and gratification it will be especially, almost exclusively devoted) except what s founded upon the professions of its conductor -These professions are that, in the first place the views and principles of the paper shall be fuller commercial intelligence than any journal already established .- 3 dly. That every exertion will be made to make it a publication which may be taken up at any moment of leisure of ennui with the confidence of finding in it, both entertainment and information. 4thly. Direct and original foreign news will always be foun in the columns of the "American."—Its editor having correspondents in London and other parts of England,-Ireland-and many com mercial towns on the continent of Europe.-Lastly touching its politics-it will be shackled by no party-but in all questions which should call forth the decided support or reprobation of public press, will express firmly and conscientiously what a sense of duty shalf dictate.

The location is considered advantageous-an n the course of a very short time cannot but beome important: - Some paper bught to be established there—and it shall not be the fault negligence in it's conductor if the "New-Orleans American" be not a good one.

PROSPECTUS. The New-Orleans American will be issue daily at 4 P. M .- The office of the paper will be in the fauxbourg St. Marie-in Magazine street not far from Canal.
