Conducted by

G. J. LORD.

THIS establishment, founded in 1845, has long held a high position in public opinion as one of the leading institutions in the South of the United States.

The pupils comprise a rare and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at the age of seven years of age, and continue till they are prepared for their future vocations in life. They are divided into classes, according to their capacities and acquirements.

The premises are, perhaps, the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an institution of learning.

The grounds are spacious and shaded, with a well-ordered regimen in the establishment, and strict discipline, and to the moral comfort and improvement of the pupils.
