THE Rev. Mr. BONGNA, of the Cathedral of this city, has been appointed agent to the following Catholic News-papers: The Catholic Sentinel and Expatriator of Boston. The Catholic Press of Hartford, The Metropolitan of Baltimore, The United States Catholic Miscellany, of Charleston.

The agency of the Miscellany has been lately transferred to him and he requests all who are indebted, to come forward and settle their accounts, as soon as possible. The historian, the antiquarian and the lover of fine arts, will find in those publications, much interesting matter. The Catholic will find his religion ably defended, against the scoffs of the infidel, and the calumnies of other denominations. Those who wish to subscribe will find lists at Mr. L. Boimars, book-store; at Mr. J. Fitz-Williams, or at the Cathedral. May 19—10c

CARLOS B. LENEZ RESPECTFULLY begs leave to inform the Public, that he teaches the "CASTILIAN LANGUAGE," that sublime idiom which has so often exacted the appellation of "THE LANGUAGE OF THE GODS," from men, both candid and learned. Mr. L. has the advantage, not only to be a perfect scholar in his mother tongue, but also to have found, by his constant labours and great experience, as an instructor of this beautiful and sonorous language, for ten years of time, a very short and easy manner of acquiring it in few months; he need not to say how indispensable it has become in a polite or commercial education, since the glorious achievements accomplished in the Spanish Americas. Terms may be known by applying at his house N. 71 Orleans street. N. B. He will also undertake to teach the same language in schools, private families &c. &c. in the city; translations of any kind of papers, documents &c. &c. from the French or English language to the Spanish. Satisfactory references will be given, both for capacity and character.

Parish Court for the Parish and City of New-Orleans—Present the hon. James Pitot.

Honoré René vs. his wife, Marie F. Cheval. THE plaintiff in this cause, Honoré René, a f. m. c. having married the defendant, Marie-Françoise Cheval, a f. w. c. in 1826, has now instituted a suit against her for both, a separation from bed and board and divorce, from her, on the ground that she has rendered herself guilty of adultery, by running away from the matrimonial domicile with a certain individual of the name of Delile Bayard, and continuing to live with the same at his house, and dwelling since some time last year 1829, in open perpetration of her said guilt.

Whereupon the defendant having failed to answer to this demand, and judgment having been entered against her accordingly by default; the court, at a regular trial of the cause, for confirmation of said judgment, having been fully satisfied by the evidence on record, that such has been the culpable behaviour of the said defendant towards her husband, the plaintiff in the present case; it is ordered and decreed, that judgment be rendered in favour of the said plaintiff, Honoré René, with costs to be paid by defendant, Marie-Françoise Cheval, and it is further ordered by the Court, that pursuant to the provision of sect. 4 of the laws of the 19th of March 1827, that the said defendant remaining convicted of adultery the parties of this suit are not only separated from bed and board, but are moreover by this judgement, divorced from each other, and thereby placed forever, by the dissolution of the bonds of matrimony between them, on the same condition, with respect to each other as if no marriage had ever been contracted between them. Signed JAMES PITOT, Judge.
