near Marigny, proposes to the planters who are desirous of having some of their slaves im-matured in the business, to take apprentices, which he engages to render capable of making Sugar and boiling the Dregs of Cisterns even before the time of their apprenticeship is ended. He would teach them not only the trade but also the manner of neutralizing acids when the cane is damaged, which he used himself at Mr. Bienvenu's and on other estates, the year that the orange trees were frozen.
Mr. JENNEAU would also like to find a merchant willing to enter into partnership with him, and who would undertake to purchase Sugar and Dregs of Cisterns, and to sell the refined Sugar.

Judge of the City Court, I shall expose for sale on Monday the 9th of August next, at 12 o'clock at noon, at Hewlett's Coffee House, corner of Chartres and St. Louis streets, a negro woman slave named Mary, seized in the above suit.
July 9
L. DAUNOY, Marshal.
TO THE PUBLIC.
THE undersigned being about to absent himself from the city for a few months, wishes to inform those whose interests require it, that a full explanation of all his affairs in his official capacity as deputy Marshal can be had by applying at the office of L. Daunoy Esq. Marshal of the City of New Orleans, and at the office of the Hon. B. Beauregard one of the associate judges of the City Court.
Those who have any claims on him either as public or private nature are requested to call on him for settlement and those who are in any manner indebted to him, are also requested to call within 10 days from this date, to adjust their accounts, and pay the balance that may be due him. After which time all unsettled accounts will be placed in the hands of A. Marc Esq. for collection.
