

THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED DAILY BY J. H. HAYES, MONDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 27, 1852.

COL PEIRE. RECORDED. FELIX DE ARMAS.

Congressional.—The resolution, offered by Mr. Clay, conjures almost exclusively to engage the attention of the Senate.

Such articles of the treaty, spread upon by the American and French governments, as we find in our northern papers, we reproduce for the perusal of our readers.

The paper war, declared against the provincial Assembly of Lower Canada, by some of the presses, has not been a lot abated by the rigorous measures enforced against Messrs. Duverney and Tracey.

There are also in prison, a man and his wife, on a charge of destroying their own child, which is expected to be investigated in this court.

The Chamber of Deputies.—The president of the chamber is continued for the preservation of order, with a triple purpose, an ivory paper-cut, a bell, and a hat.

The Fire Kings.—The great Chaubert has found a rival in Philadelphia, who can "hold a fire in his hand" (and in his mouth, too) without the trouble of thinking on the fiery Caucasus.

These of the preceding year, the sales of important articles have been in great excess.

With regard to the ports of Europe, we have nothing to say—but for the price of our country, we will say, (says the Fortnightly New Hampshire Magazine), that America has the honor.

Our principal actress (says Bernard, in his recollections of the stage) at Castle Cary, is a lady named Lady Jane and evening.

When he came on the evening for his solo in Richard, when performing in Dublin, a nail at the wing caught the tail of his majestic wig, and dislodging it had suspended the former in the air.
